1374.

Membrane 16—cont.

at Gilbert's supplication, granted him the 40l. as above of the farm of the town of Gloucester.

Vacated because surrendered, on the ground that the king, on 16 April in his fiftieth year, granted the said Gilbert the manors of Wadele and Wykyngesham, co. Berks, in tail male, in recompense for the said 40l.

June 8.  Grant to William Latymer of the keeping of the lands late of Thomas de Thweng, who held in chief, until the full age of the heir.

Vacated because otherwise below under the same date.

June 8.  Grant to William Latymer of the keeping of the lands late of Thomas de Thweng, who held in chief, until the full age of the heir, and so from heir to heir.

Membrane 15.

June 6.  Pardon to Joan, late the wife of John de Coupeland,—after referring to previous letters of pardon, dated respectively 14 November, 41 Edward III, and 17 May last,—of all farms and arrears of farms, chattels of felons and fugitives and all other receipts and demands current in demand upon her at the Exchequer in the name of her late husband, so that the executors and administrators of the goods of the said John, as also the heirs, executors, assigns, feoffees or terre-tenants of the said John and Joan, be quit and discharged therefrom; pardon also of all other things arising by reason of, or out of the act of, the said John in time past, whereby he and Joan or their heirs, executors, administrators of goods, assigns, feoffees or terre-tenants could be vexed or damaged.

June 14.  Whereas the king lately granted licence for Joan late the wife of Nicholas de Cantilupo to found a chantry of five chaplains in honour of St. Peter the Apostle in the suburb of Lincoln, in the place where the friars of the Sack once dwelt, for the celebration of divine service for the souls of Nicholas and Joan, and now the chapter of the church of St. Mary, Lincoln, who hold the patronage of the chantry, have prayed the king to grant licence for them, for the better upkeep of the chantry, to transfer it from the place where it now is to the cathedral church of St. Mary, that the chaplains may henceforth celebrate divine service as above at the altar of St. Nicholas in the said church, where the bodies of Nicholas and Joan repose; the king, for 20s. paid to him by the chapter, has granted such licence.

June 10.  Whereas the king lately by letters patent granted licence for Richard Rous to grant the reversion of the manor of Immere, expectant on the demise of Alice de Rous, to Master Henry de Shipton and John de Mulon and their heirs; now, because the said manor has come into Richard's hands by the death of Alice and the said letters have never taken effect, and for 5 marks paid anew by Richard in the hanaper, he has granted licence for him