On the supplication of the abbot and convent of Selby showing that they are impeached upon their possession of the church of Athelyngflete, which they held appropriated, on the ground that Walter de Langeton, sometime bishop of Coventry and Lichfield, in the time of Edward I granted them the advowson, after the publication of the statute of mortmain, without the licence of John son and heir of Roger de Moubray, of whom the advowson was held, while he was a minor in the king's ward, and they appropriated the church; and praying the king to provide for their security in the matter: the king, because the abbot has released and quitclaimed 50L which the king lately received as a loan from him, ratifies the estate of the abbot and convent in the church, and revokes his presentation of John de Hatfeld thereto. By K.

Grant to the king's servant, John Stygeyn, of the keeping of a messuage, 80 acres of land, 7 acres of meadow and 53s. 8d. of rent in the county of Derby late of John Frecheville of Palturton, who held in chief, until the full age of the heir, together with the marriage of such heir. By p.s.

Presentation of Robert de Wilford, parson of the church of Wolstanton, in the diocese of Coventry and Lichfield, to the church of Wytherle, in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the priory (sic) of Leyre being in his hand on account of the war with France; on an exchange of benefices with John de Salford.

Presentation of John Sherarde of Boylston, parson of the church of Teveresholt, in the diocese of York, to the vicarage of the church of Hardyngesthorn, in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king's gift by reason of the priory of St. Andrew, Norhampton, being in his hand on account of the war with France; on an exchange of benefices with Reynold Person of Brampton.

Grant to the king's esquire, John de Beverle, of the croppings of all trees thrown down for timber in the park of Eltham between 26 February in the king's forty-third year and 22 June last. By p.s.

Licence, for 20 marks paid to the king by James de Audeley of Heley, 'chivaler,' for Nicholas de Audeley, 'chivaler,' and Elizabeth his wife to grant to him for life the manor of Fordeshome, held in chief, with successive remainders to Roland, his son, in tail male, Thomas, brother of Roland, in tail, Blanche, sister of Thomas, for life, and Fulk Corbet of Morton in tail male, and remainder over to the right heirs of James.

Presentation of Richard de Brandesley, parson of the church of Bradewas, in the diocese of Worcester, to the vicarage of the church of Beckesford, in the same diocese, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the alien prior of Newent being in his hand on account of the war with France; on an exchange of benefices with William Feverus.
