1374. Membrane 8—cont.

coin money, to Thomas de Wolton, clerk, for life, with reversion to the master or warden of the hospital of St. Thomas the Martyr at Estbrigge in Canterbury and his successors in aid of the sustenance of a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in the hospital; now, at the supplication of the said Thomas, who is master of the hospital, to the intent that the chaplain may be better and more securely found and for ½ mark paid by the said master, the king has granted licence for him to grant part of the messuage in fee to William Selkyndon and Joan, his wife, for building, at a reasonable perpetual yearly fee farm to be paid to the master and his successors in aid of the sustenance of the said chaplain, and to grant the remainder thereof to Thomas Mason and his heirs on like terms.

July 9. Grant to the king's servant, John Bray, one of the yeomen of the chamber, of the keeping of an acre of land and 7l. of rent in Osmundeston and Stuston, co. Norfolk, late of John de Loundham, who held in chief, to hold until the full age of his heir, together with the issues from the time of the death of the said John de Loundham and the marriage of the heir. By p.s.

July 10. Mandate to Thomas de Eeynes, lieutenant of William Latymer, constable of Dover castle and warden of the Cinque Ports, Warin Meignyll, William Eirmyn, clerk, and all masters as well of the barge of William Latymere as of the barges of Lyde and Folkeston to deliver by indenture to John de Hedyngham and Adam Porteleu, clerk, all the goods and merchandise of merchants of Genoa lately taken in the taret of Basil Lomelym of Genoa; as the king has appointed John and Adam by these presents to receive the same, and to deliver to the merchants of Genoa what pertains to each of them.

July 8. Grant to Walter Baker, one of the king's falconers, of the keeping of three carucates of land in Dodyngton, co. Northampton, called 'Bretounesdybbyng,' and a small wood adjoining thereto, late of Thomas de la Byvere, 'chivaler,' who held in chief, to hold until the full age of the heir of Thomas; provided that he keep the houses, buildings and wood without waste or destruction and sustain all real services and other charges incumbent on the premises. By p.s.

July 11. Licence, for ½ mark paid to the king by the guardian and Friars Minors of Southampton, for the alienation in mortmain to them by John le Forester of Romseye and William Putton of a toft in Southampton, held of the king in free burgage as parcel of the said town, for the enlargement of their manse. By p.s.

July 16. Presentation of John Bacherach, canon Lutrensis, of the Premonstratensian order, to the church of Eton Meyesy, in the diocese of Salisbury.

MEMBRANE 7.

Whereas, pursuant to the terms of a grant, dated 28 June, 16 Edward II, of certain lands in Blencogou, co. Cumberland, to William de Loghmaban and his heirs, the said lands have been resumed into the king's hands because Randolf de Dacre has confessed