before the king that he acquired them in fee from the said William; the king has granted the same for life to his esquire, Peter de Roos, to hold by the service of a fourth part of a knight's fee. By p.s.

July 12. Whereas John Chaundos, 'chivaler,' in his lifetime, while he was vicomté of St. Sauveur and marshal of Aquitaine, granted to Simon de Burlee for life 100 marks sterling yearly of the castle of St. Sauveur, and of the profits, revenues and emoluments thereof and of the vicomté of St. Sauveur, which castle and vicomté the said John then held of the king's gift; now, because the castle and vicomté have come into the king's hands for certain reasonable causes, the king has granted Simon the keeping of the manor of Chiltenham, co. Gloucester, which is parcel of the bailiwick of Wormynghurst and pertains to the abbot of Fécamp, and which is in the king's hand by reason of the war with France, to hold with all liberties pertaining thereto for as long as it shall remain in the king's hand for that cause during his life, to the value of, and in recompense of the said 100 marks yearly; so that if, during the lifetime of Simon, the manor be put out of the king's hand by a peace or otherwise, then the king shall be bound to provide Simon with 100 marks yearly for life elsewhere. By p.s.

July 15. Presentation of Thomas Sudbiry to the church of Chelmersford, in the diocese of London, in the king's gift by reason of the late voidance of the bishopric of London.

July 12. Pardon to John Cotemay of Byfeld of the king's suit for the death of John atte Barre of Chacomb; as the king has learned by the record of Thomas de Ingelby and his fellows, justices appointed to deliver the gaol of Northampton castle, that he killed him in self-defence.

July 15. Notification that the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer have certified the king, in pursuance of a mandate by him, that by a search of the rolls and memoranda of the Exchequer it is found in the first roll of the king's reign in Devon, in an allowance made to the dean and chapter of Exeter, then guardians of the temporalities of the void bishopric of Exeter, that the bishopric was void from 15 October, 20 Edward II., on which day Walter de Stapuldon, late bishop, died, until 9 January following, on which day the king took the fealty of Master James de Berkele and restored to him the temporalities, and that it is found in the account of William de Harden of the issues of the bishopric of Exeter, void by the death of the said James, in the third roll of his account, that James died on 24 June in the king's first year and the temporalities of the bishopric were in the king's hand from that day until 9 March following, on which day the king delivered the said temporalities to John, late archdeacon of Nottingham, bishop elect.

July 14. Pardon, for 10l. paid to the king by William de Worston and Michael Skillyng, to them of their trespass in acquiring to them and the heirs of William the manor of Alvynston, co. Devon, from Peter de Besils, who held it in chief, and entering therein without licence; and grant that they may retain the same.
