household, the office of parker of his park of Haryngeye with the keeping and survey of all his woods pertaining to his manors of Haryngeye and Fynchesle, and of his warren in the said manors, taking yearly of the bishop and his successors 3d. sterling daily and a robe of the suit of his esquires yearly against Christmas, or else 13s. 4d. for such robe, and taking also all manner of underwood, branches and crops blown down by wind and tempest, all the crops and branches of oaks and other trees which shall be granted by the bishop or his successors in the said park and woods, and pasture for 4 oxen, cows or other beasts of that nature, and 4 colts, also pannage and pasture for 5 swine in the park, provided they be not there in time of fawning (founesorn); in return for which, the said John Charmeye shall well and loyally keep the park, wood and warren in person or by deputy and shall collect all the agistments of the park and of the pastures and pannage of swine in the park and without, and the profit of the highway in the park, answering therefor to the bishop or his attorneys, and in time of voidance of the see, to the dean and chapter of the church of St. Paul; and if he fail in the doing of his office in any of the above-mentioned points and make no reasonable amends in the month following, then the bishop and his successors, or the said dean and chapter if the see be void, may resume the office and profits and dispose of them as they will.

By p.s.

July 8. Licence, for 40s. paid to the king by William Symme of Upcherche, Westminster, for John Roiston and Alice, his wife, to grant 28 acres of land in Sidyngburn, held in chief, which they hold for the life of Alice with reversion to Simon atte Gore and his heirs, to the said William for the life of Alice, and for Simon, when William shall have possession thereof, to release and quitclaim to him all his right to the premises after the death of Alice, and for William, having had full seisin thereof, to grant them to Simon and Alice, his wife, in tail, with remainder to the right heirs of Simon.

July 13. Protection for the king's kinswoman Maud, countess of Oxford, Westminster. her servants, household, things and goods; as the king is given to understand that, while he is occupied about the state of the realm and its defence, certain persons, going about to disturb the peace of the realm, purpose to ravish and carry off the countess against her will, and have conspired together to do this, not fearing the damage and peril which may arise therefrom.

July 24. Pardon, for good service rendered by the king's servant, William Westminster. Beaufoy, one of the tellers of the receipt of the Exchequer, and for 40s. paid by him, to William Spenser, William Hauker, and John Walet, the elder, of their trespass in acquiring in fee the manor of Cateshull and 50s. of rent in Ertyngdon, co. Surrey, from the said William and Agnes, his wife, who held them in chief, and entering therein and taking the rent without licence; and grant that they may retain the premises and grant them to the said William and Agnes in fee.

Aug. 1. Inspeiximus and confirmation, for 20s. paid in the hanaper by Westminster Walter Frelende, clerk, of an indenture, dated at Kirkeby, 1 October, 41 Edward III., witnessed by William de Peyto, Philip Purefey,