MEMBRANE 3.

Aug. 1.
Westminster. Whereas the king, by letters patent dated 4 October in his thirty-fifth year, granted to John Belevale and Katharine, his wife, 20l. yearly for life or until other order out of the issues of the counties of Somerset and Dorset, and afterwards, on 18 January in the thirty-sixth year, granted them 20 marks yearly at the Exchequer for Katharine's life, and afterwards, on 6 May in the forty-fourth year, demised to John for 5 years at a farm of 82l. the town and barton of Gillyngham, co. Dorset, with certain reservations; now, at the supplication of John and on surrender of the first two letters by them, the king has granted them in recompense thereof the said town and barton in survivorship at a rent of 48l., saving to him all knights' fees, advowsons, wards, marriages, reliefs, escheats, vert and venison, fishery, conies, swans, peacocks, rents of assarts and purprestures and other royal liberties, provided that they maintain at their own expense the necessary houses of the town and barton, the mills and stanks thereof and the enclosure pertaining to the barton in as good a state as they received them in at the beginning of their term, pay all necessary wages for the keeping of the town and barton, support all
