Aug. 10. Whereas the king, on 20 November in his thirty-sixth year, granted licence for Master Nicholas de Chaddesden, clerk, and Geoffrey de Chaddesden, parson of the church of Long Whatton, executors of the will of Master Henry de Chaddesden, late archdeacon of Leycester, to grant in mortmain a messuage in Bruggestrete and the reversion of a messuage in Paternostre, London, to two chaplains to celebrate divine service daily in the church of St. Paul, London, for the soul of the said Henry, and to do other works of charity, and now the said executors have prayed the king that, as the said grant is not yet executed and the said messuages do not suffice for the sustenance of the chaplains, he will be pleased to grant them licence to grant the said messuage and reversion to the warden and two chaplains of the chantry in the chapel of Chaddesden, co. Derby, founded by them all too poorly for the safe estate of the king and for his soul after his death, and for the souls of the said Henry and his ancestors and benefactors, and to another chaplain to be newly ordained by them to celebrate as above; the king, for 20s. paid by them in the hanaper, grants them licence as desired.

Aug. 2. Presentation of Henry de Overdon, chaplain, to the church of Paulyenes Creye, in the diocese of Rochester, in the king’s gift by reason of the keeping of the land and heir of Thomas Whaghan, ‘chivaler,’ who held in chief, being in his hand.
