

1374.

Membrane 14d—cont.

certificate of the sheriffs, and is now vagabond in divers parts of the realm.

June 10. Commission in eyre in the county of Kent to John de Cavendissh, Westminster. William de Wychyngham, Roger de Kirketon, Thomas de Newenham and Robert Bealknap. By K.

MEMBRANE 13d.

May 26. Commission to Thomas de Folkerthorp, parson of the church of Westminster. Botheby. John Poucher and Ralph de Thresk to find by inquisition in the counties of Lincoln and Nottingham what lands Margaret de Buslingthorp held in chief, as well in demesne as in service, in those counties on the day of her death, and what of others, and by what service, how much they are worth yearly, at what time she died, who is her next heir and of what age, what lands, held in chief, she demised in her life without the king's licence, and to whom, what estate she had in them at the time of such alienation, what they are worth, and who has occupied the lands so alienated and the lands of which she died seised since her death.

June 8. Commission to Edmund de Tettesworth, serjeant-at-arms, to arrest Westminster. and bring before the king and council in honourable fashion William Creke, chaplain, Roger Creke, chaplain, John Robert, Robert Robert, Gilbert Ankus, Peter Mayn, John Rove, Richard atte Merssh, John Harecroft, Thomas Morton, Geoffrey Rove and Geoffrey William, who rescued by force certain sheep and animals bought at Creke, co. Northampton, for the expenses of the king's household by John de Seynesbury, appointed to buy victuals for the said household in divers parts of the realm, assaulted the said John and his servants and threatened to kill them so that, leaving the sheep and animals, they dare not do their office, as the king is informed by John de Ipre, controller of the household. By K. & C.

May 16. Commission to Robert de Notyngham, sheriff of Kent, William Westminster. Harewell and Roger Asshbourham, on information that the highway from Penshurst in that county to Barden is deep, muddy and worn by traffic of carts and horses, to find by inquisition in the said county who are bound to repair and mend the same, and to compel them by all means to do so.

June 6. Commission of oyer and terminer to Thomas de Ingelby, Roger de Westminster. Kirketon, Ralph Basset of Sapecote, Thomas de Roos of Dousby, William Bernak, Simon Symeon, John Holt, John Harwedon and John de Tame, on complaint by Thomas de Sprydlyngton that John, abbot of Barlyngez, Brother Thomas de Frissheneye, his fellow-canon, William del Bakhouse, lay brother of the house, William Darcy of Glenthams, John de Brunne of Glenthams, Robert Kutte of Glenthams, Thomas Darcy of Cavenby, John Wrangle of Cavenby, Thomas Litherwhite of Cavenby, Simon Northeby of Cavenby, William Northeby of Cavenby, John Frisby of Cavenby, William Bele of Cavenby, and others confederate together, lay in ambush for him at Cavenby, co. Lincoln, assaulted and wounded him there, took 10 of his oxen at Glenthams without cause, drove them to Cavenby