

1374.

Membrane 12d—cont.

by William de Clynton, 'chivaler,' that while he was taken and detained by the king's enemies in the king's service of war John Poyns, 'chivaler,' John Parker of Syston, Thomas Duyn and others broke his park at Tyderyngton, co. Gloucester, hunted therein without licence, carried away deer, and assaulted his men and servants and tied them to trees and stakes there.

For $\frac{1}{2}$ mark paid in the hanaper.

MEMBRANE 11d.

Nov. 18. Commission de walliis et fossatis to the abbot of Battle, Thomas Westminster. de Reyms, lieutenant of William de Latymer, constable of Dover castle and warden of the Cinque Ports, William Battesford, Roger de Asshebornham, William de Horne, Benedict Sely and John Salerne in respect of the bridge built with the king's licence by the burgesses of Wynchelse at Pypewell across the water called 'le Chanel' of Wynchelse, and also the walls, dykes, gutters, sewers, bridges, causeways and weirs on either side of the said water between the town of Wynchelse and the towns of Odymer and La Rye.

Nov. 22. Commission to Guy de Brien and Richard de Stafford, as above Westminster. [p. 57], to hear the complaints of the said Ives Bestent of Brittany, esquire, against John de Neuton, 'chivaler,' and others.

By K. & C.

MEMBRANE 10d.

Nov. 8. Commission to Thomas Halghton and Richard Hervy, reciting that, Westminster. whereas John Halghton, deceased, was lately retained to go on the king's service with many men-at-arms in his present voyage beyond seas in the company of his son John, duke of Brittany, whereupon he delivered to the said men-at-arms and others divers sums out of the king's moneys received by him, the king has now learned that, although the said Thomas and Richard have covenanted to lead the said men-at-arms and others in John's place, nevertheless these latter refuse to go and have detained the said moneys; and appointing them to compel all such to find security to go with them in the king's service according to the form of the said covenant or else restore them the money to retain other men-at-arms, and to have kept in prison all who refuse to do so until they find such security or restore the money.

By C.

Nov. 14. Commission to Gilbert de Umframvyll, earl of Angus, Michael de la Westminster. Pole, 'chivaler,' Thomas de Wythornewyk, Ralph de Retford and William de Candlesby to make inquisition in the parts named touching an information that the course of the water of the dyke of Anholm between the town of Glamforthbrig and the bridge of Feriby is so choked and narrowed that the lands, meadows and pastures of divers men of those parts are totally inundated by the water being turned from its right course and very many damages and perils happen there daily and greater will happen unless a remedy be swiftly applied.

Nov. 16. Commission of oyer and terminer to Thomas de Ingelby, Roger de Westminster. Kirketon, Roger de Fulthorp, Thomas de Musgrave, Alan de Strother and William de Acton, on complaint by Thomas de Ilderton, 'chivaler,' that John de Rodome, Thomas de Rodome, Henry de Lillebourne,