March 30. Grant, during pleasure and good behaviour, to the king’s liege, Westminster. Thomas Holhurst, of the office of collector of customs in the port of Dublin and in the port of Droghda, taking of the issues of the customs the accustomed fee yearly, except 10 marks which the king wills to be disallowed and deducted from the said fees. By p.s. Mandate to the late collector of customs in the port of Dublin to deliver the office to him by indenture, together with one part of the 'coket' seal in the said port remaining in his hands. The like to the collector in the port of Droghda. Mandate to William de Wyndesore, governor and guardian of Ireland, to demand the office and seal for delivery. Mandate to the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer of Ireland to allow Thomas the said fees, except the above-mentioned ten marks.

April 2. Protection with clause volumus, for one year, for Thomas Holhurst, Westminster, going to Ireland to stay there in the company of William de Wyndesore, governor and guardian of Ireland, in the munition of that land. By bill of p.s.

April 5. Grant to John Olyver of Croydon, the elder, of the county of Surrey, Westminster, who is so ill and broken with age that he is not able personally to sue or defend his pleas in the king’s court and elsewhere, that he may make general attorneys in his place in England; and he has attorned before the king Simon Olyver and John Hemery as such attorneys; and at his instance the king has also granted that they may make other attorneys at their will.

Richard, earl of Arundel, received the attorneys by writ.

April 10. John Fitz Elys, clerk, going to Ireland by the king’s licence, has Westminster, letters nominating John Blakebourn and John Lumbard as his attorneys in England for one year. W. de Burstall received the attorneys.

April 9. Whereas Stephen de Mareys, knight, enfeoffed Thomas de Westminster, Calampton, vicar of the church of Wollavyngton, and William Taillour, chaplain, of the manor of Hunspull Mareys, co. Somerset, held in chief, which is of the yearly value of 40 marks, and afterwards the said feoffees granted the manor to the said Stephen and Lucy, his