of the bishopric of London; on an exchange of benefices with John Kyng.

Membrane 5.

July 6. Grant to the burgesses and good men of Beverley of pavage for four Westminster years.

July 8. Presentation of John de Lytlyngton, parson of the church of Querynton, in the diocese of Lincoln, to the vicarage of the church of Gaysle, in the diocese of Norwich, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the priory of Stoke being in his hand on account of the war with France; on an exchange of benefices with Nicholas Brokle.

July 10. Pardon to Stephen de Cosyngton, knight, of his outlawry in the husting of London for non-appearance before the justices of the Bench to answer Robert de Laton touching a plea of debt of 60l.; he having now surrendered to the Flete prison as Robert Bealknap, chief justice, has certified.

July 10. Pardon to Robert son of Thomas Kyng of Baeton of the king's suit for the death of William Dalyn of Baeton; as the king has learned by the record of William de Wychyngham and his fellows, justices appointed to deliver the gaol of Lincoln castle, that he killed him in self-defence.

July 11. Licence for William de Stokesley of Whyteby to transfer the chantry lately founded by him in the church of Stokesley to the chapel of St. Mary within the priory of Giseburn, as its rents and possessions scarcely reach the value of 5 marks yearly and so it has been void for no small time; and for the prior and convent of Giseburn to hold all the said rents and possessions to find a canon regular to celebrate divine service daily in the said chapel for the safe estate of the king and his children, and of the said William, and for their souls after their death, and for the souls of John de Stokesley, Cecily his wife, and William their son.
