Membrane 21 — cont.

1375.

Aug. 19.

Nassington. Whereas the king lately granted to John Knyvet the keeping of the lands late of Thomas Belhous, 'chivaler,' who held in chief, until the full age of Joan, his daughter and heir, together with the marriage of the latter: he has now granted him the keeping of the lands of the inheritance of said John, who died under age and unmarried, as well those held in chief as of the honour of Reylegh as those held by knight service of the bishopric of London, in the king’s hand through voidance, and of the heir of Thomas de Pongyes, who held in chief, a minor in the king’s ward, until the full age of the heir of Joan, together with the marriage of said heir, and so from heir to heir; provided that he find fit sustenance for the heir and sustain the real services and other charges incumbent on the lands. By p.s.

Oct. 1.

Westminster. Grant for life to John de Kyngeston of a messuage in the parish of St. Nicholas Coldabbey in the ward of Quenhith. London, late of Christiana late the wife of John Steynour, who held it in chief, which is extended at 6 marks yearly and pertains to the king as escheat because Christiana died without heir, as is found by an inquisition taken by William Walworth, mayor of London and escheator therein. By p.s.

Oct. 11.

Westminster. Presentation of John de Cressyngham, parson of the church of Hese, in the diocese of Winchester, to the church of Wykham, in the diocese of London, in the king’s gift by reason of the voidance of the bishopric of London; on an exchange of benefices with William Chertesey.

Sept. 6.

Westminster. Grant for life to John de Berden of York of the keeping of the manor of Fosse by York, on the supplication of the king’s esquire, Walter Whitehors, to whom the king granted the keeping for life by letters patent dated 20 June, 43 Edward III, surrendered. By p.s.

Oct. 12.

Westminster. Presentation of David son of John de Estradn, chaplain, to the church of Bykenore Englys, in the diocese of Hereford, in the king’s gift by reason of the keeping of the land and heir of John de Ferers, ‘chivaler,’ who held in chief, being in his hand.

Vacated because nothing thereof was done.

Oct. 7.

Westminster. Whereas John Werk of Wyghton lately acquired in fee a messuage in Wyghton, held in chief as parcel of the manor of Wyghton, from William son of Richard de Dalton, who had acquired it from the said John Werk, and he from John Pynill, and he from John Child, and he from Roger Kaa, and he from Thomas son of Geoffrey Kesandbred of Wyghton, and he from Peter son of William de Roos, and he from Richard atte Kelde, and he from Robert de Roos, and they all severally entered therein without licence; the king, for ½ mark paid by John Werk, has pardoned the trespasses and restored to him the lands, which have been taken into the king’s hand by occasion of the said trespasses.

Westminster. Presentation of John Clerk, parson of the church of Codyngton, in the diocese of Hereford, to the vicarage of the church of Hynkle, in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king’s gift by reason of the temporalities of the priory of Hynkle being in his hand on account of the war with France; on an exchange of benefices with William de Thornton.