

1375.

Membrane 11d—cont.

be restored, and has prayed that a remedy be provided; and appointing them to find by inquisition in the said county what the goods were and of what value, and into whose hands they have come, and to have them fully restored to Hanekin, or their value, if they do not exist.

MEMBRANE 10d.

Nov. 10. Commission of the peace, in pursuance of the statutes of Winchester, Westminster. Northampton and Westminster, to Thomas de Ingelby, Roger de Kirketon, Roger de Fulthorp, Walter Frost, John de Lokton and Thomas Beverle, within the liberty of St. John of Beverley; and to inspect and determine all processes and indictments made before the said Thomas de Beverle and his fellows, late keepers of the peace and justices of oyer and terminer within the said liberty, which are not yet determined.

The like to Thomas de Ingelby, Roger de Kirketon, Roger de Fulthorp, William de Mirfeld, John Auncell, Thomas Lovell and Richard Basy, within the liberty of Alexander, archbishop of York, of Ripon.

Nov. 21. Commission of oyer and terminer to Henry de Percy, Roger de Westminster. Clyfford, Ralph, baron of Greystok, Thomas de Ingelby and Roger de Fulthorp touching the death of Randolf de Dacre at Halton, co. Lancaster.

Nov. 26. Commission to Robert Haulay, Richard Eskhed and John Briddes- Westminster. mere to arrest and bring in honourable fashion before the king and council John Cussal of Wolaston, who was retained by John Eskhed to go beyond seas in the company of the king's son John, king of Castile and Leon, duke of Lancaster, but, after having received divers sums for his wages by the hands of the said John Eskhed, has not cared to go, and has withdrawn himself.

MEMBRANE 9d.

Nov. 22. Commission to Robert Bealknap, 'chivaler,' Richard atte Lese, Westminster. 'chivaler,' Thomas Garwynton, William Ounkle, William Makenado and William Tidecombe, reciting that a wall of a way called 'Serreswall,' co. Kent, extending from a place called 'La Porte' in Chestellet, to the ferry of Serre, has been so broken by tempest of the sea that the common passage of all that country is hindered, and appointing them to survey the wall and way, find by inquisition in the county by whose default the wall is ruined, who are bound by reason of their lands in the said island (sic) or without it, or for any other cause, to repair the same, distrain and compel all such to do so, and hear and determine the premises.

Nov. 26. Commission to Gervase de Clifton, 'chivaler,' John de Annesley, Westminster. 'chivaler,' Robert Martel and Hugh de Annesley to find by inquisition in the county of Nottingham who are bound to repair a way called 'Cokerbek,' leading from Byngham 'in the Vale,' in that county, to Whatton 'in the Vale,' and the bridges thereon, and to cleanse the dykes on either side thereof; which way and bridges, through