Appointmen, until Michælmas, of John Person to buy for the king's horses, pursuant to the form of the statute of the Parliament lately held at Westminster, wherein it is ordained that the horrible name of purveyor be changed into buyer, and the other statutes and ordinances in that case provided, and to take carriage for the same.

French.

The like of the following to buy &c. as under:
Robert Werryngton, as above.
William de Mordon, to lodge the king's horses and purvey for them.

March 6.
Westminster.

Thomas de Maydenstone, for the offices of the hall and chamber,
and of the scullery and saucery.
William Cudworth, for the same offices and for the privy comings of the king to his manors of Westminster, Shene, Retherhithe, Gravesende, Haddele, Eltham, Langele, the manor in the park of Wyndesore, and Esthampsted.
Thomas de Stoke, for the expenses of the household; until Midsummer.

Feb. 7.
Westminster.

Henry de Cranford, for the king's horses; until Christmas.
William Depynge, to lodge the destriers, coursers and other horses ordained for the king's sojourn, and to buy hay &c. for them.
Richard Wicombe, as buyer for the household.
Richard Trenge, for the same.
Robert de Makeneye, for the expenses of the household.
William Deuyas, as buyer for the household.
Nicholas Croydon, for the office of the poultry.
William Morice, for the same.
William Bolde, for the same.
Peter Whitle, for the same.
Thomas de Stoke, for the expenses of the household; until Christmas.

July 6.
Westminster.

Vincent Merlawe, for the office of the bakhouse.
Richard Fode, serjeant baker, for the same.
Thomas de Wytenham, yeoman of the scullery, for the said office.
William Sayour, Laurence Querebowyl and Robert Bernand, for sea fish for the office of the kitchen (cyxyn).

July 10.
Westminster.

John Parkere, to buy for the king's falcons in his mews near Westminster; until Easter next.

Willam Fauconer, for the king's horses; until Easter.

Westminster.

John de Seynesbury, for the expenses of the household; until Easter.
Robert Werryngton, for the king's horses; until Easter.

Westminster.

Jan. 8.

John Person, for the same; until Easter.

Westminster.

1377.

Jan. 10.

Richard Sampson, for the office of the poultry; until Michaelmas.
Nicholas Croydon, Peter Whitle and William Bolde, for the same; until the same feast.
William Morice, for the same office; until the same feast.
Vincent Merlawe, for the office of the bakehouse; until the same feast.