

1376.

Membrane 16—cont.

June 25. Inspeximus of (1) letters patent of Philip de Everdon, lately dean Westminster. of the church of St. Peter Wolvernehampton, sealed with the common seal of his chapter, and witnessed by Master Andrew de Janua, and Sir Robert de Warwyk, canons of the said church, Sir William, sacristan of the same, Geoffrey de Bilston, clerk, Moses de Waltham, Hervey son of Clement de Wolvernehampton, John the Clerk and others, granting, for a sum of money paid in hand, to John de Teford and his heirs or assigns a plot of land of the grantor's waste in Prestwod, called 'Warynes Shute,' lying longitudinally from the way leading from Wodnesfeld opposite the house of Maud atte Wode (ad Boscum) as far as the assart of Nicholas son of Robert atte Well (ad Fontem), and containing in width at the lower end (capite) towards the said assart from the common field of the township of Wodnesfeld towards his waste 19 perches of land, in the middle 14 perches, 11 feet, and at the upper end towards the said way, opposite the house of the said Maud, 9 perches, 13 feet, to hold at the rent of 8*d.* of silver yearly for all services and demands except two appearances at the two great courts of the dean; and (2) letters patent of Thedesius de Camilla, sometime dean of the said church, sealed as above and witnessed by Masters John de Cadamo, Andrew de Genuie and Richard de Saltford, and Sir Robert de Warewyk, canons of the church, Ralph, lord of Bysshebury, Hervey son of Clement de Wolvernehampton, Richard son of Gervase de Wolvernehampton, Richard de Russhale of the same, John the Clerk and others, granting to Geoffrey de Billeston, clerk, and his heirs and assigns, a plot of land in the grantor's wood of Prestwode under Wade Mour, surrounded by a hedge and dyke. And confirmation of the foregoing, notwithstanding that the said plots were of the foundation of the said church, which is now called the king's free chapel of Wolvernehampton. By fine of 20*s.* paid in the hanaper.

June 28. Pardon to Nicholas Dobyn of Ragnyll of the king's suit for the Westminster. death of John Cloppe of Ragnyll; as the king has learned by the record of Thomas de Ingelby and his fellows, justices appointed to deliver Notyngham gaol, that he killed him in self-defence.

June 28. Pardon to John, servant of Robert Pirie of Coventre, of the king's Westminster. suit for the death of Walter David, whereof he is indicted or appealed, and of any consequent outlawry. By p.s.
The like to William, servant of Robert Pirie of Coventre, for the said death. By the same writ.

MEMBRANE 15.

June 19. Inspeximus and confirmation to the prior and convent of St. Mary's, Westminster. Malverne, and their successors, of the following:—

(1) Letters patent of Henry I, dated at Hereford, in favour of the church of St. Mary, Malvern, and the monks there. [Monasticon vol. III, p. 447.]

(2) Charter dated 1 March, 14 Edward II, inspecting and confirming a charter of Henry I, dated 1127 at Winchester, in favour of the same. [Ibid. p. 448.]

By fine of 40*s.* paid in the hanaper.

June 15. Pardon to Thomas Leycestre of the king's suit for the rape of Joan Westminster. late the wife of Peter de Brugge, whereof he is indicted or appealed, and of any consequent outlawry. By p.s.

Vacated because surrendered and otherwise below.