

1376.

Membrane 1d—cont.

Robert Tresilian, in the commission to Guy de Brien, John Mountagu, Robert Bealknap, Hugh de Segrave, Henry Percehay and Walter de Clopton, to make inquisition in the county of Devon touching the liberties and privileges allowed to the stannary men by a charter of Edward I, confirmed by the king, in the place of the said Guy, John, Henry and Walter.

The like to the same, in the commission of oyer and terminer to the said justices touching conspiracies, confederacies, extortions, oppressions &c. in the said county.

Aug. 16. Commission, during pleasure, to William Giles and John Pafford, Westminster. pursuant to the liberties and privileges of the stannary men of the same county, to coin the tin worked there at the places appointed for this.

Vacated because below.

Aug. 20. Commission to Ralph Basset of Drayton, Edmund Appelby, William Westminster. Flamvyle, John Talbot and Laurence Hauberk, to make inquisition in the county of Leicester touching all persons concerned in the death of William Hoggesone and Amice Graneby, killed at Reresby.

Aug. 21. Commission to the king's serjeant-at-arms, James Lyons, to arrest Westminster. and bring before the king and council Roger Damory, John Robyn and John Bedieth with all men of their company at Waymouth, Dertemouth or Plymouth, as well as all their vessels, good and letters in whosesoever hands found. By C.

Aug. 22. Commission to W. bishop of London, Master John de Appelby, Westminster. dean of the church of St. Paul, London, and Master John Cotesford, archdeacon of Wilts, reciting that, whereas the king, at the supplication of the said bishop signifying that one Nicholas Sarney, chaplain, had counterfeited papal bulls and thereby usurped many things prejudicial to ecclesiastical liberty and the bishop's jurisdiction, lately caused the said Nicholas to be taken by the sheriffs of London and imprisoned, he has appointed them to inspect the said bulls and diligently examine Nicholas upon the matter and all things attempted or done by him by pretext of the bulls: and in case of his conviction to proceed for his correction in form of law and punish him as justice demands, and to do all such other things as they know to pertain to their office. The king has commanded the sheriffs of London to deliver to them the said Nicholas and the bulls. By C.