Oct. 5. Havering-atte-Bower.

his soul when he shall have departed this life, and for the souls of his progenitors, kings of England, and the said treasurer and his ancestors.

Whereas on 12 August last the king leased to Robert de Assheton, for life, the manor of Berton Bristol at the rent of 110l., and granted to him that he should take the 100 marks yearly at the Exchequer granted to him by letters patent at another time by his own hands out of the said farm, and that if the manor were ever taken out of his hands, he should again take the annuity at the Exchequer; now, in consideration of Robert's good service, and in compensation for the 100 marks yearly, and because Robert has surrendered the said letters, the king has granted to him the manor aforesaid, to hold with the hundred of Berton Bristol and all other appurtenances, for life, without rendering anything.

Vacated and surrendered because he surrendered the manor and hundred into the hands of king Richard II upon conditions contained in letters patent of the said king, dated 1 February in his fourth year; and because the said king by the said letters granted to him the constableship of the castle of Dover and the wardenship of the Cinque Ports.
