1376.
Oct. 4.
Westminster.

Membrane 25—cont.

Grant for life to the king's serjeant, Hugh atte Halle, one of his farriers, of a messuage situated on the king's highway in Depford, which William Ferour held in tail male of the grant of Edward II. with reversion to him and his heirs, now in the king's hands by the death of the said William without heir male of his body. By p.s.

Oct. 7.
Havering-atte-
Bower.

Grant to the king's serjeant, Ralph Tyle, that, whereas the king lately granted him the bailiwick of keeping the park of Haveryng-atte-Boure during pleasure, he shall have the same for life. By K.

Oct. 1.
Havering.

Whereas the king, by letters patent dated 15 February last, committed to Robert de Assheton the keeping of the castle and town of Porcestre and of the forest there, to hold for life by the extent; now, for the better defence of the castle, which is situated on the coast, and of the parts adjacent, he has ordained by advice of the council that Robert, while he have the keeping, shall have one porter, one artiller and one watchman, dwelling within the castle, for whom he shall answer, taking by the name of his fees 8d. a day in time of peace and 12d. a day in time of war, and for the wages of the porter, who with a groom under him shall have the keeping of the king's warren there, and for the wages of the said groom, 4d. a day, for the wages of the artiller 6d. a day and for the wages of the watchman 3d. a day, out of the extent so far as that is sufficient for this, and any residue of such wages beyond the extent out of the issues of the county of Southampton. By p.s.

Oct. 10.
Westminster.

Licence, at the request of William de Monte Acuto, earl of Salisbury, for Nicholas Benton to crenellate the walls of his houses in the manor of Fallardeston, co. Wilts. By K.

Oct. 6.
Havering.

Presentation of Simon Goderich to the church of Neuton Longevile, in the diocese of Lincoln, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the alien priory of Neuton Longevile being in his hand on account of the war with France.

Oct. 8.
Havering-atte-
Bower.

William, lord of Latymer, who was impeached in the last Parliament in great sums pertaining to the king received by him and his servants or deputies during the time when he was captain or the king's lieutenant at Becherell in the duchy of Brittany and elsewhere in those parts, by way of ransoms, emoluments and other profits, as well as otherwise, of which he has not yet satisfied the king, and also of singular counsel and misrule of the king's affairs and things against the king's honour and profit during the time when he was with him of his council, to wit, of loans made by him to the king's very great damage and loss without urgent and necessary cause, as also of divers letters patent made and granted to carry wool to foreign parts elsewhere than to the staple at Calais, and of impositions on woolens made without the assent of Parliament to the annulment and destruction of the said staple and of the king's coinage there, and was thereupon committed to prison in the keeping of the marshal of England until he should make fine or ransom with the king for this cause, and, at the instance of the magnates and commonalty of the realm, was removed by the king from every office, as well in the same Parliament before the said magnates and commonalty as afterwards before the king's person.

Wt. 18915.