Membrane 3—cont.

Jan. 10. Pardon to William Man, serjeant of the saucery of the household, of three salt-cellers of the king's of white silver marked outside with a leopard, seventeen like salt-cellers marked within on the border with the king's arms of England and France, quartered, twenty two like salt-cellers marked within on the border with an escutcheon (seuchelio) of the said arms, and twenty two silver salt-cellers marked with the said arms, the whole weighing by the goldsmiths weight twenty-six pound three shillings and ten pence halfpenny, making in money 34l. 12d., and two salt-cellers of the king's of white silver marked without on the border with the arms of England and Hainault, party (partitiis), weighing by the said weight thirty shillings two pence farthing and making in money 39s. 3d.; all which were stolen and lost when in his keeping in the time when Henry de Wakefeld, clerk, was keeper of the wardrobe.

By p.s. [31270.]

Jan. 16. Presentation of John Roger, chaplain, to the church of Ovynngton, in the diocese of Winchester, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the bishopric of Winchester being in his hand for certain causes.

Jan. 15. Whereas Edward Burnell and Alina, his wife, lately acquired from William de Ercalwe an estate in fee in the manor of Ercalwe Magna, which manor is said to be held in chief, and William acquired the same from Alina after the death of Edward, and Edward and Alina as well as William entered into the manor by virtue of such acquisition, and whereas by virtue of the said feoffment William de Cavercswell, 'chivaler,' as kinsman and heir of the first named William, and after his death Peter, his son and heir, likewise entered into the manor, and Peter enfeoffed John de Walton and John Wodelok, chaplains, of the same and they entered therein and granted it to him and Mary, his wife, in tail male, with remainder to his right heirs, and Peter and Mary then entered into the manor, and whereas Peter afterwards enfeoffed Thomas Geth and John Knodc, vicar of the church of Ercalwe, of the same, and they re-granted it to Peter and Mary, in tail, with remainders to the heirs of the body of Peter and to their right heirs, all without the king's licence, and on account of these trespasses the manor has been taken into the king's hand: the king, for 20l. paid by Peter, has pardoned the trespasses and granted that he and Mary shall have the manor again, to hold in tail male, with remainders to the heirs of the body of Peter and to their right heirs.

Jan. 14. The king ordains that the rents of the assarts of his forest of Chepenham, Penesham and Melkesham, amounting to 18l. 14s. yearly, which, as he understands, are collected for his use by the prioress of Ambresbire, shall, during the lifetime of Roger de Bollo Campo, keeper of Devises castle, be paid by her to the porter of that castle and expended by him on the repair and maintenance of the walls, turrets and buildings of the castle, and of the enclosure of the king's