1377.

Membrane 3—cont.

park there, by the survey of the parson of the church of La Devises and of the mayor of that town; and that in the account to be made thereof by the porter at the Exchequer due allowance shall be made of his reasonable expenses over the repairs and up-keep by testimony of the said parson and mayor.

By p.s.

By p.s.

Westminster.  Et erat patens.

Here the great seal was delivered to Adam, Bishop of St. Davids, the chancellor, to wit on 11 January in this year, as appears in a memorandum on the horse of the close roll of this year.

Membrane 2.

Jan. 1.  Grant to John atte Viso that, whereas the king by letters patent lately granted to him the office of the chief serjeanty of the county of Kildare during pleasure, he shall have the office for life.

By p.s.

Jan. 6.  Grant to John Palmer, one of the pages of the kitchen, that, whereas the king lately granted to him for life 15 acres of land in Hadenham, co. Cambridge, which were forfeit to the king because the archdeacon of Ely appropriated them to himself and his church of Wilbourton without licence, he shall have the same in fee.

By p.s.

Jan. 4.  Grant, for life or until other order, to Thomas Barre, 'chivaler,' of 40 marks yearly at the Exchequer.

By p.s.

Vacated and surrendered, because king Richard, on 16 November in his eighth year, at the supplication of the said Thomas, granted him the annuity for life out of the issues of the county of Hereford.

Jan. 2.  Licence for William Bardolf of Wirmegeye to grant to Nicholas de Carreu, Robert Bardolf, Adam Wykemere and Robert son of William Alisandre, for the life of Agnes consort of the said William, daughter of Michael de Ponynges, 'chivaler,' the manor of Berlyng and 12l. of rent in Berowyk, co. Sussex, and the manor of Northrongeton, co. Norfolk, held in chief.

By p.s.

Jan. 8.  Pardon, at the supplication of the king's kinsman, Henry de Percy, to Geoffrey de Besiles, prior of Bradestoke, of the king's suit for all felonies and trespasses against the peace, whereof he is indicted or appealed, and of any consequent outlawries.

By p.s.

Jan. 2.  Whereas the king by letters patent lately committed for life to Peter de Bruges, deceased, the manor of Souththorp, sometime of John de Sancto Philiberto, 'chivaler,' and afterwards William Hervy and Mary, his wife, entering into the manor after the death of Peter, continued their possession therein and now hold the same de facto without the king's authority or licence; the king has pardoned them the said trespass and has granted them the issues of the manor from the day of the death of Peter.  Grant to them further, for good service done by William, that they shall hold the manor of the king's gift, in tail male, with reversion to the king.

By p.s.

Jan. 10.  Grant for long service to John Botelston of the constableship of the castle of Weysford in Ireland and the office of the chief serjeanty of