

1376.

Membrane 1—cont.

Waltham, as of the value of 80*l.* beyond 30*l.* granted to John de Burgh, knight, the court of the honour of Maundevyll of Heiestre, as of the value of 100*s.*, two parts of the manor of Hallingbury, as of the value of 23*s.* 4*d.* beyond 40 marks yearly granted to the lady of Nevyll and Brother John de Nevyll, the manor of Wykes, as of the value of 20 marks beyond 40 marks yearly granted to Robert Fitz Rauf, the view of Chissell, as of the value of 6*s.* 8*d.*, the court of the honour of Gloucestre, as of the value of 100*s.*, the court of the honour of Farle, as of the value of 100*s.*, the manor of Kneshale, as of the value of 11*l.* 16*s.* 8*d.* beyond 8*d.* a day granted to John de Catterton, and the manor of Ascote, as of the value of 16*l.* yearly, according to the value thereof certified into the Chancery by bill of the treasurer, to hold from Michaelmas last in part satisfaction or payment of the said 1,000 marks until the full age of the heirs of Humphrey de Bohun, late earl of Hereford, who held in chief, or until he obtain livery of the inheritance of his wife Eleanor, one of the said heirs; he taking the remaining 423*l.* 13*s.* 4*d.* of the said 1,000 marks at the Exchequer until the full age of the heirs or until he have livery of the said inheritance.

By K. & C.

MEMBRANE 33d.

Aug. 18. Mandate to the constable of Dover castle and warden of the Cinque Westminster. Ports or his lieutenant, and the keepers of the passages in all ports of England, not to permit any lord, magnate or other to pass beyond seas without the king's special licence or until they have other mandate from him.

Et erat patens.MEMBRANE 32d.

Sept. 3. Commission to John de Clynton, 'chivaler,' Ralph de Ferrers, Westminster. 'chivaler,' William de Catesby, William Purfrey, John Percy and John Toft of Coventre, reciting that the king understands that, notwithstanding the statute that all cloths put up for sale before they are sealed shall be forfeit to him, divers men of Coventre and elsewhere in the county of Warwick daily put up for sale large quantities of cloths unsealed, and that he has therefore appointed them to make inquisitions by oath of good men of the county, in the presence and by the information of John Ray of Coventre, farmer of the subsidy of cloths made in the said town and county, of the names of those who have done this, the number and quantity of cloths sold contrary to the statute and the price and true value of the same, and all other circumstances relating thereto.

Sept. 5. Commission of oyer and terminer to Guy de Brian, Robert Bealknap, Westminster. Robert Filz Payn, Hugh Tyrell, Henry Percehay, William de Lucy and Walter de Clopton, on complaint by Robert Knolles that, whereas he freighted a ship called the Welfare of Dertmouth in the port of Plymmouth with goods for London, and on the voyage the ship was driven by the violence of the sea to Kymerych in Purbyk, co. Dorset, Thomas Coupe, William Colle of Lutton, William Bouche, Robert Renaud, Thomas Renaud, Henry Pepere, John Pepere, John Hore, Emma, his wife, William Hore, John Pyk of Egleston, Robert Jolyf, Nicholas Chubbe, Hugh Wetherman, Robert Chubbe, William Nyweman, Henry Nyweman, John Adam, Alice Haukynes, John Culle,