MEMBRANE 24.
March 19. Grant to Edward Dalyngrigge, 'chivaler,' of 40l. yearly of the farm due to the king for the keeping of the manor of Rotherfield, in the king's hand by reason of the minority of the heir of his kinsman, Edward le Despenser, who held in chief, by the hands of William Strete, farmer of the manor, and other farmers thereof, for as long as the manor shall stay in the king's hand for that cause during his lifetime.

March 19. Whereas Thomas de Karliolo, clerk, Ivo, vicar of the church of Aynstaplyth, and William Kyrkebride, chaplain, lately acquired from Adam Parvyngh, 'chivaler,' two parts of a third part of the manor of Skelton, held in chief, and entered therein without licence, and William Randolson granted to the said Adam and his heirs the reversion of a messuage, 23 acres of land and 3 acres of meadow in Bochardby by Carlisle, likewise held in chief, expectant on the demise of Mariota late the wife of Thomas de Morpath, and upon this Mariota attorned to Adam, and afterwards Adam granted the reversion to Thomas, Ivo and William and their heirs, to whom Mariota likewise attorned, without the king's licence, and all the premises are taken into the king's hand by occasion of the said trespasses; the king, for 20s. paid by Thomas, Ivo and William, has pardoned the trespasses and restored to them the said two parts, and to Mariota the said messuage, land and meadow for life, with reversion as above.

March 24. Pardon to William Strete, late the king's butler, for a sum of money, part of which he has paid in hand and for the residue of which he has given security, of all debts, accounts and arrears of accounts in which he is bound to the king for any cause, and of all sums of money and all
