1377.

Membrane 11—cont.

May 13.

Sheen. Pardon, at the supplication of the king's daughter, the princess, to Thomas de Spridlyngton of Glentham of the king's suit for the death of William Darcy of Glentham, whereof he is indicted or appealed, and of any consequent outlawry. By p.s.

May 20.

Sheen. Grant for life to the king's serjeant, John Asphull, of the office of the constableship of the castle of Foderyngeye with the keeping of the park of Foderyngeye, Erleswod and Neuhaye, taking the wages and fees pertaining to the office and keeping. By p.s. Vacated because surrendered, as king Richard with the advice of his council, on 8 March in his fourth year, took the office out of John's hand and granted him by other letters patent 3d. daily of the issues of the county of Essex.

May 20.

Sheen. Pardon to Nicholas Repyndon of the king's suit for the death of John de Castell, whereof he is indicted or appealed, and of any consequent outlawry. By p.s.

May 18.

Westminster. Appointment of John de Thorneton of Newcastle-upon-Tyne and William Redmershill of Newcastle-upon-Tyne to search all ships and boats entering or leaving the port of Newcastle-upon-Tyne and all other ports along the sea-shore as far as Whitby on the one hand and Berwick-upon-Tweed on the other, and any suspected persons therein, for wools, woollen, hides, cloth or other merchandise not cocketted or customed, or gold or silver in money by tale, or bullion, plate or jewels laden therein, and for persons carrying bulls, letters, instruments, processes or other things prejudicial to the king or his subjects into or out of the realm against the prohibitions made in the matter, and to arrest all such together with the ships and boats in which they are and the persons taking them, and keep them safely until further order. By bill of the treasurer.

May 12.

Westminster. Whereas the king lately granted to his serjeant, John Stygeyn, the keeping of lands and a rent in the county of Derby late of John Fressheville of Palturton, who held in chief, together with the marriage of his heir; he has now granted him the keeping and marriage from heir to heir, provided that he find fitting sustenance for such heir, keep the lands and rent without waste or destruction, and support the real services and other charges incumbent thereon. By p.s.

May 20.

Sheen. Confirmation in fee to Geoffrey Priour, fisher, of the tenement in the parish of St. Sepulchre without Neugate in the suburb of London, late of Robert de Langle, which the king lately granted to him for life. By p.s.

May 22.

Sheen. Grant for life to Amaury de Valort, 'chivaler' of the king's lordship of Aquitaine, for good service in the wars beyond seas and because he has lost the lands of his inheritance in that lordship by pretext of those wars and has now become so old that he cannot well labour in the king's service, of 2s. daily for his sustenance and 10 marks yearly for