granting to his yeoman, Henry Douunham, for good service to him and to his wife Isabel, the king's daughter, the house and place of Fyneslesgrove in Luton for the life of himself and his wife; and as the earl has heard that a former servant, called Wilkin de Horneby, holds the same at farm for a certain time, he wills that Ilorneby hold it for his term, paying Henry the sum of his farm; and gives order to Sir Thomas Tirel, his grand steward, John Jamez, his receiver in England, and all others his officers, justices and subjects to allow Henry to have peaceable possession of the said gift.

(2) Letters patent (in French) of the same, dated at Paris, 25 March, 51 Edward III, granting to the said Henry for the life of himself and his wife, 100s. yearly in his manor of Swalfeld, co. Berks.

The king also wills that, if Henry outlive the earl and his wife, he shall have the premises for life.

By p.s. and for ½ mark paid in the hanaper.

Grant in fee to the king's squire, Thomas Hauteyn, of the messuage and 5 acres and 3 roods of land in Hadenham in the Isle of Ely, forfeited to the king because the master and brethren of the hospital of St. John, Ely acquired them in mortmain without licence by Richard Tyd and Robert Hykelyngton, their fellow-brethren, which the king lately granted him for life.

By p.s.

Presentation of John Keteryng, vicar of the church of Hemelhamstede, in the diocese of Lincoln, to the church of Redelegh, in the diocese of Rochester; on an exchange of benefices with Thomas Wilford.

Grant for life to Alice de Perreres of as much wood for fuel within the forest of Whittelwode as she shall need from time to time for her stay at the castle of Morcsende, and of as many oaks for timber in the said forest as she shall need for the repair of the castle and the houses and buildings pertaining thereto.

By p.s.

Ratification of the estate which Alice Perriers has for life in the castle and manor of La Morende, cos. Northampton and Oxford, of the grant of John de Ipre.

By p.s.

Grant to the king's esquire, William de Riceby, marshal of the hall of the household, for long service, of the 7½d. daily for wages which he now takes, as do the other esquires of the household, and also 4½d. daily, to wit, 12d. in all, to be taken by the hands of the keeper of the wardrobe, for life, whether he be without or within the court, or until further order.

By p.s.

Ratification of the estate of the king's clerk, Robert de Crull, as prebendary of Codesshall in the king's free chapel of Tetenhale.

By p.s.

Appointment of William Hygon, mayor of Corf, and William Clavyle to do the works ordained to be done in the castle of Corf by view and testimony of John de Warmyngton, controller of the works.

By bill of the treasurer.