

1377.

Membrane 10d—cont.

Nicholas Burnell, James de Audelee, Roger Lestrangle of Knokyn, John de Lodelowe, Fulk Corbet, Roger de la Lee and the sheriff ; Salop. French.

The mayor of Lenn, Thomas Botlesham, John de Brunham, Geoffrey Tolboth, John de Bockynge and Edmund Fransham ; in the town and suburbs of Lenn.

MEMBRANE 9d.

April 29. The like to Robert de Kedynton, Walter Beneyt, James de Marnham Westminster. and John de Bury of the town of St. Edmunds, and the alderman thereof, in the said town. French.

June 2. The like to John Akedenne, John Rolf and John Foghel, in the Westminster. hundred of Oxeney, co. Kent ; also to bring the men so arrayed to the town of La Rye whenever the mayor and bailiffs thereof shall summon them, as the king has learned that his enemies with a great multitude of ships are hastening to that town to perpetrate what mischiefs they can on the king and his people ; also to arrest and commit to prison until further order all whom they shall find contrariant. By C.

The like to the abbot of Robertsbridge, Edward de Dalyngrugge, 'chivaler,' and Robert Ecchyngnam, in the hundreds of Collespore, Gosetrowe, Stapull and Henehurst, co. Sussex.

MEMBRANE 7d.

May 8. Association of Nicholas Carreu in the late commission to Robert Westminster. Bealknap and Roger Fulthorp to survey, examine and do speedy justice in a plea in the husting of London between the late prior of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem in England and Adam de Houton, bishop of St. Davids.

June 5. Commission to the bailiffs of Great Yarmouth to array all defensible Westminster. men of the town between the ages of sixteen and sixty, furnish them with arms, keep them furnished and arrayed, arrest and commit to prison until further order all whom they shall find contrariant, compel by distrains of lands, goods and merchandise, or otherwise, all burgesses and others having land, goods or merchandise within the town who have lately withdrawn from the town, to make continual stay therein in sufficient munition and array according to their estate, unless they make stay in other maritime places where their presence may be reasonably held to be equally necessary, and then to compel them by such distrain to find other fit persons as their substitutes for their tenures, goods and merchandise. The king also wills that, when the men of the town are thus arrayed, armed and furnished, the commissioners, whenever warned, shall bring them to a fitting place near the town before the chief arrayers in the county of Norfolk that they may survey them, and the commissioners shall correct any defects in the array on the advice and order of the said surveyors.

By C.MEMBRANE 5d.

June 14. Association of William de Chetwynne, Thomas Neuport and Edward Westminster. de Acton in the commission of array to Nicholas Burnell and his fellows in the county of Salop.