1331.

Membrane 6—cont.

Henry de Thorp, parson of the church of Brom, for two years.
The abbot of Louth Park.
Hugh de Marony, parson of the church of Northton by Bury St.
Edmunds, for two years.
John de Ellerker the younger.
Thomas de Wylughby of Somercotes.
Margaret late the wife of Robert de Wylughby.
Alan de Sutton.
Rouland Treunward of Bristol, for two years.
Master Henry de Cantuaria, for two years.
John de Celer of Bristol.
John de Hemysburgh, parson of a moiety of the churches of Middleton and Colyntre.
Adam son of William de Wysebech.
Thomas de Baumburgh, keeper of the hospital of Boulton, who is constantly attendant on the king's business, for two years.

March 22. Pardon to Thomas Laurence de la More and Isabella his wife for acquiring Westminster.
for themselves and the heirs of Thomas from John Laurence de la More, his father, a messuage, two carucates of land, 30 acres of meadow, 12 acres of pasture, a grove called ' Hapec ' and 31s. 111d. in rent, in Little Haddon, in the parish of Bampton, with the homages and services of the free and custody tenants, the villeins and their issues and all other appurtenances, held as of the manor of Bampton, part of the ancient demesne of the Crown, which had previously been acquired in free simple by the said John from John de Haddon, to whom they had been re-granted, after surrender, by Aymer de Valencia late earl of Pembroke, to hold in fee simple by certain services contained in the deed of grant, without the licence of the king's progenitors or of the king having been obtained for any of the aforesaid transfers; and licence for them to retain the premises. By fine of 10s.

May 6. Grant to the good men of Cosyngton and Rothele, co. Leicester, of Havering atte pontage for four years on wares passing over the bridge across the Sore in the king's highway between their towns, for repair of the said bridge.
Westminster.

May 8. Gift to Thomas de Bradestan, in enlargement of a late grant to him of Havering atte the custody of the manors of Lechelde, Bardeles and Sudyngton, co.
Gloucester, late of Edmund, earl of Kent, of the winter corn growing in the lands of those manors.

May 6. Licence for John de Sudle to enfeoff John de Staunton of 40 acres of Havering atte meadow in Sudle, held in chief.

May 12. Havering atte
Havering atte
Havering atte
Havering atte

William de Chorkleton, Katherine his wife and Margaret wife of John de Ansey, Eleanor, Elena and Joan, sisters of Katherine, staying in England, have letters nominating the said John their attorney in Ireland for two years.

May 10. Havering atte
Pardon to the burgesses of Drogheda in the part of Meath, in consideration of their costly labours in the service of the king and of his progenitors, of a fine of 100 marks made to the king for liberties granted to them, as well as of 60 marks out of their farm to be applied in repairing their bridge. The latter sum is to be allowed them when paying their farm at the Exchequer in Dublin by the deduction of 20 marks in each of the three next years.

The like to the burgesses of Drogheda in the part of Uriel.

May 8. Appointment of Nicholas de Derneford, for service to the late king and the king, as master of the works in the king's castles in South Wales, with daily wages of 12d. to be paid by the chamberlain there, during good behaviour.

By K.