March 29.

Tower of London.

Pardon to Adam Murre of Baynton for the death of John son of Sarra at Baynton, as it appears by the record of Peter de Middelton and his fellows, justices appointed to deliver York Castle, that he killed him in self defence.

March 29.

Tower of London.

Licence, after inquisition ad quod damnum, and in consideration of the great losses caused to the abbey by the frequent forays of the Scots, for the alienation in mortmain by John Gernoun and Margaret his wife to the abbot and convent of Holm Coltram of an acre of land in Wiggeton and the advowson of the church of that town, in the diocese of Carlisle, to find four monks of the order as chaplains to celebrate divine service daily in the abbey church, and two secular chaplains to do the like in Wiggeton church, for the good estate of the king, in life, for his soul, after death, and for the souls of the said John and Margaret and of her ancestors; and for the appropriation of the church by the abbot and convent. By p.s.

March 27.

Westminster.

Pardon to Adam Murre of Baynton for the death of John son of Sarra at Baynton, as it appears by the record of Peter de Middelton and his fellows, justices appointed to deliver York Castle, that he killed him in self defence.

March 27.

Westminster.

Licence, after inquisition ad quod damnum, and in consideration of the great losses caused to the abbey by the frequent forays of the Scots, for the alienation in mortmain by John Gernoun and Margaret his wife to the abbot and convent of Holm Coltram of an acre of land in Wiggeton and the advowson of the church of that town, in the diocese of Carlisle, to find four monks of the order as chaplains to celebrate divine service daily in the abbey church, and two secular chaplains to do the like in Wiggeton church, for the good estate of the king, in life, for his soul, after death, and for the souls of the said John and Margaret and of her ancestors; and for the appropriation of the church by the abbot and convent. By p.s.

March 24.

Westminster.

Licence, at the request of queen Philippa, for the alienation in mortmain by John de Framlyngham, clerk, to the prioress and nuns of Campesse of the manor of Karleton by Keleshale, co. Suffolk, and the advowson of the church of that town, and for the prioress and nuns to grant the manor to a chaplain, for life, on condition that he, with two other chaplains to be found by him, celebrate divine service daily in the said church for the soul of Alice de Henaud, late countess of the marshal, aunt of the queen, and for the soul of the grantor, after his death. On the death of the said chaplain, the prioress and nuns are to resume possession of the manor and to grant it to another chaplain to hold upon like conditions, according to appointment to be made by the said John, and so from time to time as each successive chaplain dies. They are also to present to the church whenever void.

March 24.

Westminster.

Licence, after inquisition ad quod damnum, for Peter de Ty to enclose a way 60 perches long and 14 perches broad, leading from Weston to Lonewade Bridge, for the enlargement of his dwelling house in Weston, on condition that he provide a like way for public use on his own land. By fine of 20s. Norfolk.

March 29.

Tower of London.

Appointment of Master Robert de Ayleston, king's clerk, archdeacon of Berks, to the office of the Treasury of the Exchequer, during pleasure. By K.

March 28.

Tower of London.

Mandate to W. bishop of Norwich for livery to him of the rolls, keys and other things pertaining to the office now in his custody. Writ de intendendo for him directed to the barons of the Exchequer and the king's chamberlains.

March 28.

Tower of London.

Grant to the bailiffs and burgesses of Scardeburgh of quayage on wares landed on their quay, until three years from Easter. By the Chancellor at the instance of Robert de Scardeburgh.