

1332.

Membrane 12d—cont.

John de Duston, 'cordewaner,' John de Cortenhale, 'taillour,' Adam son of Henry le Garlekmonger, Simon le Barber, Edward de Pabenham, Nicholas le Poreter of Northampton, John de Stratton 'le fitz,' and John Persho, 'bakere,' of Briggestrete, Northampton, with a great mob of armed men of the town, with the assent of the commonalty thereof, and ringing of the town bell, besieged his lodging at Northampton by night with the said outlaws and others, broke the gates, doors and windows of the said lodging, carried away his goods and assaulted his servants. By K. & C.

April 1. Commission to Richard de Egebaston and Robert de Gadesby, on petition of the commonalty of the county of Leicester shewing that Edward I. granted them licence to build a prison in the town of Leicester, that after they had done so, it was ordered in the time of Edward II. with the assent of the commonalty that a hall should be built beyond the prison for delivery of prisoners and holding of pleas in, divers sums of money being assessed for the purpose on the townships of the county, and collectors of the same appointed, but that, although the timber of the hall has been got together out of such assessment, the hall itself is still without any roof and unfinished because the collectors have kept a great part of the money raised in their own hands, to audit the accounts of the said collectors, to distrain for all arrears and to complete the work. By C.

April 4. Appointment of Thomas Bacoun in the late commission of oyer and Baldock. terminer to Richard de Wylughby, Roger Chaundos and Robert de Aston on complaint by William la Zousche that John de Grey, knight, and others carried away his goods at Leechelade, co. Gloucester, in the place of the said Richard who is otherwise engaged in the king's business. By the Chancellor.

MEMBRANE 11d.

March 21. Appointment of Roger Heron, Robert de Hornclyve, Thomas de Heton, Westminster. Richard de Emeldon, and Robert de Toghale as keepers of the county of Northumberland, pursuant to the statute made in the present Parliament, to arrest all disturbers of the king's peace therein and to hear and determine the trespasses whereof they are indicted. By K.

The like of the following :—

Ranulph de Dacre	}	for the county of Cumberland.
Richard de Denton
John de Derewentwatre
Clement de Skelton
Robert de Clyfford	}	for the county of Westmoreland.
John de Lancastre of Holgil
Roger de Brunnolfesheved
Adam de Bowes
John de Haveryngton	}	for the county of Lancaster.
Richard de Hodeleston
Thomas de Lathum
John de Horneby the younger
Thomas Wake of Lydel	}	for the East Riding of Yorkshire.
William de Tweng
John de Sutton
Robert de Scoreburgh
John de Faucomberge	}	for the North Riding of Yorkshire.
Nicholas de Meynill
Ralph de Hastyngges
John de Kylvynton		