1334.

The like for Patrick Potter, chaplain.

Protection with clause rogamus, for one year, for attorneys and proctors sent by the good men of the town of Nottingham to collect alms for the repair of the great bridge, the little bridges and the causeys of their town.

Exemption, for life, of John de la Wodehalle from being put on assizes, juries or recognisances, and from appointment as mayor, sheriff, coroner, or other minister or bailiff of the king, against his will. By p.s.

Pardon to the citizens of Dublin in Ireland, on their petition showing that whereas they hold their city by a yearly fee farm of 200 marks, whereof two parts are levied on houses in the suburbs of the city, the said houses at the time of the late invasion of Ireland by the Scots were with the common assent of the land of Ireland burned to save the city, that the Scots might not harbour therein, and still are lying waste, as well as for their heavy expenses caused by frequent attacks of Irish rebels and at divers times in defence of their city and in other places in the king's service, in the company of the justiciary, and for relief of their estate whereby they are now so impoverished that they cannot pay their farm without intolerable burden, of 100 marks, being one moiety of the said farm.

By p.s.

Mandate in pursuance to the treasurer and barons of the Exchequer of Dublin.

Grant to Henry de Lancastre, the king's kinsman, reciting a grant to him of 500 marks yearly at the Exchequer and his subsequent appointment to the custody of the castle and land of Bergeveny in Wales, during minority of the heir of John de Hastynges tenant in chief of the late king, that he shall retain such appointment quit of the rent of 500 marks at the Exchequer reserved in the letters patent whereby the same was made, in recompence of the first-mentioned grant. By p.s.

Pardon to John Haward, late sheriff of Norfolk and Suffolk, of 400£ out of 55s. 14s. 4d., required of him by summons of the Exchequer, for debts owing to the king from the time when he was sheriff. By p.s.

Protection with clause notamus in Ireland, for two years, for the abbot of Keynesham, staying in England.

Ralph, count of Eu and Guisnes (Comes Augi et Guynarum), and Joan his wife, staying beyond the seas, have letters nominating John Fremin and Ralph Sirloc their attorneys in Ireland for three years.

Grant to the king's burgess and merchant, John de Denton of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, having regard to the good place which he held for the king and his lieges in the last war of Scotland, and still holds, and to his service to the late king and to the king, that for his life his merchandise shall be quit of all customs, prizes of wines and maltolts whatever.

By K. & C., and by p.s.

Membrane 10.

Inspeximus and confirmation of (1) charter of Edward king of Scots, dated at Rokesburgh on 20 October, in the first year of his reign, and witnessed by Henry de Bello Monte, earl of Boglan, David de Strabolgi, earl of Athol, Duncan, earl of Fife, Gilbert de Umfrewill, earl of Angoues, Richard Talebot, Henry de Ferriis, Alexander de Mountbroy, Eustace de Maxewell, knights, and many others being a grant to Thomas Ughtret, knight, of the manor of Bouchill, and other lands in Scotland which had escheated to the king by the forfeiture of John Stiward, knight, to hold to