MEMBRANE 25.

Sept. 25. Pardon to Philip Leny of Bannebury, chaplain, in consideration of good service done by him in Gascony in the company of Oliver de Ingham, seneschal of the duchy [of Aquitaine], for his aid in the rescue lately made at Bannebury of John Russell while on his way to the gallows to be executed, and of any consequent outlawry. By p.s.

Sept. 25. Exemption, for life, of John de Brakenbergh from being put on assises, juries or recognisances, and from appointment as mayor, sheriff, coroner, escheator or other bailiff or minister of the king, against his will. By p.s.

Aug. 28. Grant to John, archbishop of Canterbury, of the custody of lands in Glen, co. Leicester, and Merston, co. Sussex, late of Roger Martel, tenant in chief of the late king, to hold during minority of Henry, the son and heir, with the marriage of the heir. By K.

Sept. 25. Notification of the revocation of the late collation of John de Toneford, king's clerk, to a prebend in the collegiate church of Wengham, made in the belief that that prebend was void by the death of Vitalis de Testa; inasmuch as the latter is alive and well. By p.s.

Sept. 25. Protection with clause nolens, for one year, for Richard de Swaflam, parson of the church of Burghersh, who is constantly attendant on the king's business in the Chancery. By p.s.

Sept. 25. Protection with clause nolens, for one year, for Richard de Swaflam, parson of the church of Burghersh, who is constantly attendant on the king's business in the Chancery. By p.s.

Sept. 25. Release to the sub-prior and convent of the church of St. Mary, Southwark, of all the issues of the temporalities of the priory, received by them as keepers thereof by the king's appointment during the late voidance, and of the account which they should render of these. By p.s.

Sept. 18. Pardon to Matilda late the wife of Edmund son of John de Benstede for acquiring for her life, with remainder to John son of Edmund de Benstede and his heirs, from Robert de Morley and William de Playford a messuage, 140 acres of land, 81 acres of meadow and 7 acres of pasture, in Welcomstowe, held in chief, which they had previously acquired in fee from Edmund son of John de Benstede, and entering upon the same although the king's licence had not been obtained for either transfer; and restitution of the same to her to remain to the said John. By fine of 100l. Essex.

Sept. 24. Restitution to queen Isabella, for her life, in remembrance of the divine precept that sons should reverence their parents and of filial duty, and that she may have such increase of honour as becomes her estate, of the county and land of Ponthieu and Montreuil, with the collation to all prebends in the church of St. Wolfram, Abbeville, in the said county, and other profits together with the castles, boroughs, towns, manors, lands and all other places whatsoever, as fully as she held the same before. By K.
