1335.

Feb. 23. Grant to William de Wyght, for service to the king and queen Philippa, of the following liberties, for life, to wit, that he shall be exempt from being put on assizes,juries or recognisances, and from appointment as mayor, sheriff, coroner, escheator or other bailiff or minister of the king, and that his goods shall be quit of taxes and tallages. By K.

Feb. 22. Licence, during pleasure, for Roger Bast, late keeper of the hospital of St. Katherine by the Tower of London, to grant to the brethren and sisters of the hospital from his wood of Leynton, which is within the metes of the forest of Essex as is said, by view of the forester there, as much underwood for fuel and timber for rebuilding a watermill of theirs at Reynham as they shall require. By K.

March 6. Protection, for one year, for Simon Baret of Heacham, his ship called Scoule, and his men and servants, while fishing on the sea and trading with the fish caught.

March 14. Mandate to William Erneys, escheator in the counties of Warwick, Coventry. Licence, during pleasure, for Roger Bast, late keeper of the hospital of St. Katherine by the Tower of London, to grant to the brethren and sisters of the hospital from his wood of Leynton, which is within the metes of the forest of Essex as is said, by view of the forester there, as much underwood for fuel and timber for rebuilding a watermill of theirs at Reynham as they shall require. By K.

March 6. Protection, for one year, for Simon Baret of Heacham, his ship called Scoule, and his men and servants, while fishing on the sea and trading with the fish caught.

March 6. Protection, for one year, for Simon Baret of Heacham, his ship called Scoule, and his men and servants, while fishing on the sea and trading with the fish caught.

March 14. Mandate to William Erneys, escheator in the counties of Warwick, Coventry. Licence, during pleasure, for Roger Bast, late keeper of the hospital of St. Katherine by the Tower of London, to grant to the brethren and sisters of the hospital from his wood of Leynton, which is within the metes of the forest of Essex as is said, by view of the forester there, as much underwood for fuel and timber for rebuilding a watermill of theirs at Reynham as they shall require. By K.

March 6. Protection, for one year, for Simon Baret of Heacham, his ship called Scoule, and his men and servants, while fishing on the sea and trading with the fish caught.

March 6. Protection, for one year, for Simon Baret of Heacham, his ship called Scoule, and his men and servants, while fishing on the sea and trading with the fish caught.

March 14. Mandate to William Erneys, escheator in the counties of Warwick, Coventry. Licence, during pleasure, for Roger Bast, late keeper of the hospital of St. Katherine by the Tower of London, to grant to the brethren and sisters of the hospital from his wood of Leynton, which is within the metes of the forest of Essex as is said, by view of the forester there, as much underwood for fuel and timber for rebuilding a watermill of theirs at Reynham as they shall require. By K.

March 6. Protection, for one year, for Simon Baret of Heacham, his ship called Scoule, and his men and servants, while fishing on the sea and trading with the fish caught.

March 14. Mandate to William Erneys, escheator in the counties of Warwick, Coventry. Licence, during pleasure, for Roger Bast, late keeper of the hospital of St. Katherine by the Tower of London, to grant to the brethren and sisters of the hospital from his wood of Leynton, which is within the metes of the forest of Essex as is said, by view of the forester there, as much underwood for fuel and timber for rebuilding a watermill of theirs at Reynham as they shall require. By K.

March 6. Protection, for one year, for Simon Baret of Heacham, his ship called Scoule, and his men and servants, while fishing on the sea and trading with the fish caught.

March 14. Mandate to William Erneys, escheator in the counties of Warwick, Coventry. Licence, during pleasure, for Roger Bast, late keeper of the hospital of St. Katherine by the Tower of London, to grant to the brethren and sisters of the hospital from his wood of Leynton, which is within the metes of the forest of Essex as is said, by view of the forester there, as much underwood for fuel and timber for rebuilding a watermill of theirs at Reynham as they shall require. By K.

March 6. Protection, for one year, for Simon Baret of Heacham, his ship called Scoule, and his men and servants, while fishing on the sea and trading with the fish caught.

March 14. Mandate to William Erneys, escheator in the counties of Warwick, Coventry. Licence, during pleasure, for Roger Bast, late keeper of the hospital of St. Katherine by the Tower of London, to grant to the brethren and sisters of the hospital from his wood of Leynton, which is within the metes of the forest of Essex as is said, by view of the forester there, as much underwood for fuel and timber for rebuilding a watermill of theirs at Reynham as they shall require. By K.

March 6. Protection, for one year, for Simon Baret of Heacham, his ship called Scoule, and his men and servants, while fishing on the sea and trading with the fish caught.

March 14. Mandate to William Erneys, escheator in the counties of Warwick, Coventry. Licence, during pleasure, for Roger Bast, late keeper of the hospital of St. Katherine by the Tower of London, to grant to the brethren and sisters of the hospital from his wood of Leynton, which is within the metes of the forest of Essex as is said, by view of the forester there, as much underwood for fuel and timber for rebuilding a watermill of theirs at Reynham as they shall require. By K.