9 EDWARD III.—PART I.

Membrane 31—cont.

Grant to John de Molyns, king's yeoman, of a messuage and a carucate of land in Henchampsiede, co. Hereford (sic), sometime of Peter de Gaveston, which afterwards came into the hands of Edward II. and was by him granted for life to John de la Haye, now deceased, to hold to him and his heirs by the services due to the king and other chief lords as fully as Peter de Gaveston held it. This grant is made notwithstanding a prior grant by the king made by the procurement of Roger de Mortuo Mari, then earl of March, his enemy, of the reversion of this messuage and carucate of land to Hugh de Turpliton and his heirs, which he afterwards revoked with the assent of the Parliament held in the fourth year of his reign among other grants made by the procurement of the said Roger without the king's consent and to his prejudice.

Membrane 30.

On trustworthy evidence the king has learned that Edward II. by word of mouth granted to the monks dwelling in the island of Farnehead by Bamburgh, co. Northumberland, an island which is a cell of Durham priory, 10 quarters of wheat and 2 tuns of wine yearly by the hands of the mayor and bailiffs of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, to be received for ever of his alms, and that such grant was not duly sued out into execution in his lifetime, nor confirmed by any letters of his; and wishing, for the saving of his father's soul, to fulfil his intention, he has granted of his alms to the said monks and their successors for ever 13 marks and 10s. in lieu of the wheat and wine, that is, 5 marks for each tun of wine and 2s. for each quarter of wheat, to be received at Michaelmas by the hands of the mayor and bailiffs of the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne out of the farm of their town.

By p.s.

Mandate in pursuance to the mayor and bailiffs of the said town.

Mandate to the sheriff of York and all bailiffs, ministers and lieges in that county to provide sufficient carriage for John de Harwyo, who has been ordered by the king and council to bring such timber as shall be necessary from the forest of Gleves to York for making and repairing walls, paling and houses within the king's castle of York, his houses by his mills beneath the castle, where the smiths work, the walls of the pond of the said mills, and a wall and well in the garden of the Friars Minor by the door of the kitchen for the king's refreshment when he shall stay there.

By C.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by William de Scuruton of three messuages, eight bovates of land and 2 acres of meadow, in Great Langeton-upon-Swale and Scuruton, to a chaplain to celebrate divine service daily in Scuruton church for the souls of the said William, Matilda his wife and their ancestors.

By fine of 40s. York.

Whereas Henry sometime king of England, by charter which the king has inspected, granted to the abbot and monks of St. Mary's, York, their possessions quit of all earthly service with such liberties as the churches of St. Peter, York, and St. John Beverley, had, and afterwards Edward II., by a charter also inspected by the king, defining for their security liberties expressed in general words in the previous charter specified among other liberties that they and their successors and their men should be quit of tallage in city and borough and in all places throughout the whole of England; and whereas between the mayor and comonalty of York and the abbot and convent, on account of a suit made by the latter in the
