rescinded the right which he claimed therein by reason of a Papal provision on the ground that icing's free chapel are entirely exempt from all ordinary jurisdiction, and submitted himself to the king's grace, and at the special request of Ralph, baron of Stafford.

Mandate in pursuance to the dean of the chapel.

Membrane 23.

April 1. Licence for the alienation in mortmain by John de Isenham of Bruggenorth to the master and brethren of the hospital of Holy Trinity, Bruggenorth, in satisfaction of 20s. of the 100s. yearly of land and rent which they have the king's licence to acquire, of three messuages, a cottage, a toft, a croft, 30 acres of land and 5s. of rent, in Bruggenorth, which are not held in chief as appears by the inquisition.

April 4. Grant to Joan de Carreu, for service to the king and queen Philippa, that whereas the king lately granted to her for life certain lands in Deremouth, Clifton, and Hardensseo, co. Devon, by the rent of 7l. 10s. at the Exchequer, she shall hold these without rendering anything for them; and release of any arrears due on account of such farm. By K.

April 5. Grant, for the indemnity of Robert de Grymeston, keeper of the hospital of St. Nichobes, York, who at the king's request has granted to John de Waltham, his messenger, sustenance from the hospital for life, and his successors, that the house shall not be charged with any other at the request of the king or his heirs in the lifetime of the said John. By p.s.

April 1. Prohibition to all ecclesiastical persons from proceedings in derogation of the king's right to collate to the prebend of Ereford in the church of St. Chad, Lichefield, by reason of voidance of the see in the time of Edward I., which the king recovered by judgement of the court of King's Bench against Roger, bishop of Coventry and Lichfield, and of the possession of the same by William de Northwelle, king's clerk, on his collation.

April 5. Release to Joan de Carreu, in consideration of her long service to the king and queen Philippa, of the arrears due on account of the extent reserved in the late grant to her by letters patent of the custody of the manor of Iplepenne, co. Devon, during minority of Aymer, son and heir of John de Sancto Amaudo, tenant in chief. By K.

April 1. Inspevisimus and confirmation of letters patent of Stephen, bishop of London, dated Stenehith, 20 March, 1335, being an inspevisimus and approval of (1) letters of Thomas, abbot of the Benedictine monastery of Westminster, and the convent of that place, dated in their chapter at Westminster, 5 November, 1334, reciting that Elizabeth de Monte Aucto, a girl of noble birth, had entered the priory of Halywelle by London as a nun; that the revenues of that house were not sufficient for the sustenance of the nuns there; that she had nothing of her own wherewith to provide for her food and clothing, and that they out of pity for her poverty and in consideration of many benefits conferred on their house by her relations (parentes) and especially by Simon, bishop of Worcester, had granted to her, for life, whether she should stay in the priory or be transferred to any other place and whatsoever her estate might then be, the yearly pension of 100l. which the bishop used to receive from their house, to be received by her yearly on the feast of St. Andrew by the hands of the keepers of the treasury of Eleanor, late queen of England; reciting further that they bound themselves and their successors by distraint of their goods for the due fulfillment of their contract on pain of 20l. to be paid to the Pope's chamber in aid of the Holy Land if ever the pension should be unpaid one month after the aforesaid day; and (2) letters of Mary, prioress of