

1336.

*Membrane 22d—cont.*Oct. 20.
Newcastle-upon-Tyne.

Commission to Philip de Aylesbury and Thomas de la Hay to survey the castle of Berkhamstede, now in the king's hands by the death of his brother, John, earl of Cornwall, as it is reported that there are great defects in the houses, walls, turrets, bridges and other buildings, and waste in the woods thereof.

By K.

Oct. 29.
Berwick-on-Tweed.

Commission de wallis et fossatis to Geoffrey de Colevill, Robert de Hakebech, Geoffrey Bryseyerd and Adam de Fyncham in the parts of Merskeland by Walpol, co. Norfolk.

*MEMBRANE 21d.*Oct. 6.
Auckland.

Mandate to John Dyn and John de Hemenhale, the collectors of the tenth and fifteenth in the county of Essex, that whereas many of the sub-taxers and collectors in the county have refused to pay in their collections although long overdue, to the great hindrance of the king's service, they are to seize into his hands the goods of any so refusing, and if resistance is offered to arrest those resisting and imprison them until further order.

Sept. 26.
Nottingham.

Writ de intendendo directed to the mayor and bailiffs of Lynn in favour of Thomas de Cary, king's yeoman, to whom the king by letters patent has granted the farm of 21l. 6s. 8d. due yearly at the Exchequer from them and the other burgesses of the town, to be received by the hands of the mayor and bailiffs for the time being until he have from the king the equivalent in land and rent for life.

By K.

Sept. 20.
Nottingham.

Commission of oyer and terminer to William de Sharesull, John de Hampton and John de Tyryngham, on complaint by Roger Normaund that whereas he was lately appointed by letters patent to provide ships for the king's service, Robert Irenmongere, John Tyrel, William Kyppyng, John Marcham, Richard le Northerne, 'serjaunt,' William le Keu, 'serjaunt,' and others took away two horses of his, worth 60l., at Winchester, while he was engaged on the aforesaid service and carried away his goods.

By fine of $\frac{1}{2}$ mark. Southampton.Sept. 28.
Nottingham.

Commission to Richard de Whittaire and John de la Lee to find by inquisition in the county of Warwick whether Joan de Vedale enfeoffed Thomas Gerveyse of Wisshawe, late the king's bailiff of the manor of Sutton in Colfeld, then in his hands by reason of the minority of Thomas earl of Warwick, and John, his brother, of a cottage and a croft in Wisshawe, and, if so, under what circumstances, and whether the said Thomas by a writing promised to preserve her harmless in respect of an indictment before him in the view of frank pledge that she stole an ox and three cows of William Freman of Colleshull at Colleshull, so that she should not be imprisoned by reason of that indictment.

Oct. 28.
Berwick-
on-Tweed.

Appointment of William de Clynton, constable of Dover Castle, and warden of the Cinque Ports, pursuant to the statute of Northampton and ordinances made in other Parliaments against any that should break the peace after the king had gone to Scotland for the defence of the realm, to find by inquisition the names of those in his bailiwick and the parts adjacent, who have or are suspected to have offended against these, and to arrest these, and cause them to be imprisoned in the said castle until further orders.

By K. & C.

*MEMBRANE 20d.*Oct. 10.
Auckland.

Commission of oyer and terminer to Thomas Bacoun, Constantine de Mortuo Mari, John Claver and Robert de Tolthorpe, on complaint by John, bishop of Ely, that whereas among other liberties granted to the church of St. Etheldreda, Ely, by kings of England, it has been granted