1337.
March 15. Grant to the king's kinswoman, Isabella, countess of Mar, on her petition shown before the king and council in the present Parliament showing that the lands of her inheritance in Scotland have been devastated by the war there, of 2 marks weekly at the Exchequer, during pleasure.

By K., and the great council.

Mandate in pursuance to the treasurer and chamberlains.

1336.
Oct. 7.
Appointment of Simon de Kyrkeby to the office of controller of the custom of wools, hides and wool-fells, the custom of 3d. in the pound, and other petty customs and prests, due to the king in the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, during good behaviour; on condition that he write his rolls with his own hand and stay there constantly. He is to have the custody of one part of the cocket seal so long as he holds the office.

By p.s.

1337.
April 4.
Grant to Henry de Ingelby, king's clerk, of the custody of the smaller part of the seal used for recognisances of debts in the city of Norwich, during good behaviour.

By p.s.

March 22.
Edward II. granted to Elias de Assheburne a messuage and three carucates of land in Dumbro and Hunteston in Ireland, late of Walter de Istelepp, which were then in his hands for certain causes, to hold for his life as of the yearly value of 10l. And afterwards the said Walter made fine by 500 marks for restitution of his said lands, whereof he paid 100l. 15s. 10d. in the wardrobe, promising to pay the balance by the feast of St. Peter ad Vincula then next. Whereupon Edward II. restored to him his lands, goods and debts which had been taken into the king's hands and granted to the said Elias 100 marks of the 348 marks 10s. 10d. remaining due on account of the fine, willing that so soon as the said Walter had paid these to Elias or given security for payment he should have again the messuage and three carucates of land. And now the said Walter by letters patent under his seal has, as is said, released for him and his heirs all his right in the said messuage and lands, which are now called the manor of Donbro, in a carucate of land in the lordship of Sauntrof and in all other lands which the said Elias holds in Donbro and Sauntrof, and this release, which, as the latter has asserted before the king in his chancery, has been made for pardon of the said 100 marks granted to him by Edward II. as above, is now confirmed by the present king.

By fine of 20s. Ireland.

March 24.
Appointment of Master William la Zousche, king's clerk, dean of the church of St. Peter, York, to the office of treasurer of the Exchequer, during pleasure.

Writ de intendendo for him directed to the barons of the Exchequer and the king's chamberlains.

Mandate in pursuance to H. bishop of Lincoln, in whose custody the office at present is.

March 27.
Protection with clause notumus, for two years, for the abbot and convent of Hailes, who hold the churches of St. Breage in Kyriel and St. Paul, co. Cornwall, with the chapels belonging to them, to their proper use, but are greatly hindered in receiving the fruits and profits of these by persons who threaten and assault their men and servants and carry away the goods of the abbey.

Vacated because otherwise below.

March 27.
The like [amended by the insertion of certain words omitted in the first entry apparently by accident.]

March 17.
Grant, with the assent of the present Parliament at Westminster, to William de Clynton that he shall have in tail male 1,000 marks yearly of land and rent the better to support the estate of earl of Huntingdon lately