

1337.

Membrane 30d—cont.

Essex, and carried away his goods, the king lately appointed Master John de Hildesle, William de Sharesull, Robert de Scardeburgh and Thomas Bacoun, to hear and determine the tresspass, and the parties pleaded long time before the said Master John and Thomas; and afterwards he appointed John de Shardelowe, in place of the said John de Hildesle, in the premises, and the said Thomas is now dead; he has appointed John de Pulteneye and John de Shordich to continue the process begun herein by the said John de Hildesle and Thomas, along with the said John de Shardelowe, William and Robert. By C.

MEMBRANE 29d.

March 22. Appointment of William de Bello Campo, William Tracy and Thomas Westminster. Cassy of Wych, pursuant to the ordinance of the Parliament lately held at Westminster for the arrest of persons openly suspected of felonies and other trespasses to arrest and imprison in the castle of Worcester Gilbert de Northwyk, chaplain, and Walter Devoten of Blokley, clerk, as suspected persons.

March 16. Commission of oyer and terminer to William de Sharesull, Roger Westminster. Hillary, Philip de Somerviil and John de la Lee, on complaint by Roger, bishop of Coventry and Lichfield, that some persons broke his park at Beaudesert and entered his free chace at Cannok, co. Stafford, hunted there and carried away deer. By K.

MEMBRANE 28d.

March 6. Commission to Nicholas de la Beche, Edmund de la Beche, Richard de Westminster. Worth, parson of the church of Fifhide, John de Thedmerssh, Thomas de Meaux and John Brounz, on complaint by the commonalties of the counties of Oxford and Berks that fishers in the river Thames, and keepers of weirs, sluices and piles fixed across the river, and millers of mills in and by the same, take fish great, small and young, by nets made with too narrow meshes and other engines in an unduly destructive manner, contrary to the ordinance regulating nets and engines for taking fish, and that the weirs made for the mills are so raised and obstructed that the adjoining lands, meadows and feedings are often flooded, to survey when necessary all nets, sluices and engines for taking fish in the river in those counties, and the weirs and mill-ponds causing the floods, to find by inquisition the names of those who have so destroyed fish, to make proclamations against this wherever expedient, and to furnish delinquents, first by amercement, and afterwards by burning the nets and engines, and also to bring down to the proper level weirs and mill-ponds raised above measure and to remove all other obstructions complained of. By C.

March 17. Commission of oyer and terminer to William de Sharesull, Richard de Westminster. Baiocis, Richard de Kellesull, John de Blounvyll and Geoffrey de Lenne, on complaint by Robert de Insula that John de Ros of the county of Hertford, Robert, his brother, and others broke his park at Sabricheworth, co. Hertford, hunted there and carried away deer. By p.s.

March 8. The like to Robert de Scardeburgh, John de Pulteneye, mayor of Westminster. London, Thomas de Lincoln and Gregory atte Shire, on complaint by Hugh de Langrave, executor of the will of Richard de Willehale of London, and William Pykerel of London, and Alice his wife, executrix of the said will, that John de Willehale, William Watership of Hattefeld and others carried away goods of the said Richard in their custody at Edelmeton, co. Middlesex.