Presentation of John de Attelburgh, parson of the church of Knyggeston, in the diocese of Ely, to the church of Huntyngefield, in the diocese of Norwich, in the king's gift by reason of his custody of the lands and heir of Roger de Huntyngefield, tenant in chief; on an exchange of benefices with Peter de Belagh, king's clerk.

Presentation of William Devyas to the vicarage of the church of Chesthunt in the diocese of London, in the king's gift by reason of the lands and benefices of men of the power of the king of France being in his hands.

Presentation of Emeric de Argenteles, a monk of the priory of St. Mary, Lancaster, a cell of the abbey of St. Martin, Séez, in Normandy, to Robert de Wodehous, archdeacon of Richemund, for admission as prior of that house, now void by the death of Ralph, the last prior, and in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the abbey in England being in his hands.

Presentation of Ralph Sauser of Stratford to the vicarage of the church of Hanleyo, in the diocese of Worcester, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalities of the abbey of Lire in England being in his hands.

Whereas John de Segrave of Folkestanc acquired from John de Segrave, his father, as estate in fee in the manor of Lodenehalle, co. Norfolk, which the latter had previously acquired from Roger Bigod, late earl of Norfolk, the marshal, who held the manor of Edward I., and entered into the same although no licence had been obtained for either transfer; the king, in consideration of a fine made by him, has pardoned these trespasses and granted licence for him to retain the manor. By p.s., and by fine of 20s.

Whereas Edward II. assigned to queen Isabella at the door of the church, when he espoused her, lands of the yearly value of 4,500l. as dower, and she afterwards at the request of the present king and the prelates, earls, barons and other magnates of the realm voluntarily surrendered these, and whereas the king, to provide for her estate, granted to her for life lands to the yearly value of 3,000l., as appears more fully in divers letters patent; he for the special affection and gratitude which he has for her wishing to supply what is lacking of the dower assigned to her by his father, has granted that she shall have for life, or until she receive an equivalent of land and rent for life, 1,500l. yearly, payable at Easter and Michaelmas, out of the customs in the following ports, to wit London, 500l., Boston, 500l. and Kngeston-upon-Hull, 500l. If, by occasion of war or assignment to any persons of the said customs, the queen be unable to receive any part of the said 1,500l. out of these, she shall receive such part at Exchequer at the terms aforesaid. By p.s.

Ratification of the estate which Ralph Sauser of Stratford, king's clerk, has by provision of the apostolic see in the vicarage of the church of Hanleyo in the diocese of Worcester, of the patronage of the abbet of Lire. By K.

Grant, for service in the war of Scotland and elsewhere, to Giles de Badelesmere that he may freely dispose of his goods by will, and the executors of his will shall have free administration of all goods he shall have on the day of his death; so that neither the king or his heirs or any of their ministers shall not intermeddle with these by reason of debts found to be due by him at his death from the time of his ancestors. By K.

Presentation of Simon de Shorham to the vicarage of the church of Bixle, in the diocese of Chichester, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the see.

Thomas de Assheburn, knight, staying in Ireland, has letters nominating Robert le Webister, chaplain, and John de Helpeston his attorneys in England for two years. Elias de Assheburn received the attorneys by writ.