1337.

Membrane 8—cont.

Aug. 28. Westminster. Protection with clause voluntus in Ireland, until Easter, for Giles de Bawleismere, going beyond the seas on the king’s service. By K.

Aug. 27. Westminster. Whereas, on 10 April, 10 Edward III., the king granted to William de Kendleston the marriage of his daughter, Matilda, kinswoman and heir of Edmund Bacoun, tenant in chief, and for a fine of £20. granted to him also the custody, during her minority, of the manor of Ewelme, co. Oxford, late of the said Edmund, and whereas the said William has made petition to him setting forth that he fears that he can be impeached by the escheator and other the king’s officers in respect of the custody of certain lands in Kyngeseye, parcel of the said manor, which pertain to the custody for which he made fine as above, on the ground that these lands are not expressed in the said letters patent; the king grants that he shall have the said lands in Kyngeseye along with the custody of the manor during minority of the present or other heir of the said Edmund by the fine aforesaid. By K. & C.

Aug. 30. Westminster. Simple protection, for one year, for Master John Lambok of Notyngham, Thomas de Chiscnhale, William Tony of Notyngham and Master Bernard de Dallyng, jointly. By p.s.

Aug. 28. Westminster. Protection with clause nolunus, for one year, for William Beaupynue of Cirencestrae.

Membrane 7.

Aug. 20. Westminster. Grant to Edmund de Ufford of £20. yearly at the Exchequer, for life or until he receive an equivalent in land and rent for life. By p.s. The like to Robert de Ufford ‘le cosyn.’ By p.s.

Aug. 18. Westminster. Grant to the king’s merchant, William de la Pole of Kingston-upon-Hull, to whom the king is bound in £4,000l. for payments in furtherance of some secret business, as appears by an account made before John, archbishop of Canterbury, Master William la Zousche, dean of York, the treasurer, and others of the council, and in divers other great sums lent for the expenses of the household and other purposes, as is more fully shewn in bonds, tallies and other evidences in possession of the said William, that he shall receive himself or by his attorney all the issues of the old and new custom in the ports of Kingston-upon-Hull and Boston, and of the subsidy over and above the custom granted to the king in the great council at Nottingham on wools and other merchandise exported, by indentures made between him and the collectors of the customs and subsidy in those ports, and shall have the custody of one part of the cocket seal in either port, until his debts are satisfied; saving all assignments previously made on these customs. By K. & C.

Aug. 20. Westminster. Mandate in pursuance to the said collectors of the customs and subsidy.

Aug. 20. Westminster. Pardon to Robert de Ufford ‘le fitz’ and Elizabeth, late the wife of William Latymer, tenant in chief, for intermarrying without the king’s licence. By p.s.

Aug. 20. Westminster. Presentation of Philip de Northchard, parson of the church of Burton, in the diocese of St. Davids, to the church of Roscrothour, in the same diocese, on an exchange of benefices with John de Roche, king’s clerk. By p.s.

Aug. 53. Westminster. Inspectimur and confirmation of an indenture, dated at Weruelye, on Sunday after the feast of St. Peter ad Vincula, 11 Edward III., between the abbot and convent of Halesowyn, of the one part, and Joan Botetourt, lady of Weleye, of the other part, witnessing that, in the return for the manor of Weruelye, co. Worcester, granted to them in mortmain to found certain chantries [Monasticon, vol. vi. p. 928], the abbot and convent granted to the said Joan and her heirs for ever the right to present to