Protection until Whitsunday for Michael Martyn, Martin Domnyges, John Alfons and John Ocho, merchants of Portugal, who have hired in the port of Southampton a ship called la Juliane of Southampton, whereof Richard Kempe is master, to go to Portugal and Spain for wines, olive oil and other things for P. cardinal of St. Praxed's, dwelling within the realm, and themselves; and for the said master, mariners, ship and cargo.

By K. & C.

Licence, in pursuance of the ancient custom confirmed to the citizens of London by the king's charter that they may bequeath tenements within the liberty of the city in mortmain or otherwise, for John de Pulteneye, citizen, to bequeath in mortmain to the master, or warden, and chaplains of the chapel lately built by him in honour of the feast of Corpus Christi, celebrating divine service there daily for the good estate of him and Margaret his wife, in life, for their souls after death and the souls of their ancestors and heirs, a message in the parish of All Hallows on the Cellar, London, acquired by him in fee from John de Swanlond, a message in the parish of St. Martin's Orgar, acquired from Stephen de Abyndon, and a message in the parish of St. Laurence's, Candelwykestrete, London, acquired from John de Aulton and Katherine his wife, rents of 10s. in Fleitestrete in the parish of St. Bride's in the suburb of London, acquired from Isabel late the wife of Matthew de Arras, and 2s. 8d. in the parish of St. Margaret's, Briggestrete, London, 5s. 10d. and 5s. 10d. in the parish of St. Nicholas's Hakon, London, and 2s. in the parish of St. Faith the Virgin's, London, acquired from the executors of the will of Stephen de Abyndon, a message in the parish of St. Michael's Paternoster Church, London, acquired from William de Langeford, a message in the parish of St. Vedast's (Sancti Vasti), London, and a message and a shop in the parish of St. Christopher's, Bradestrete, London, acquired from Richard de Gloucestre, a message called la Brigghouse in the parish of St. Botolph's without Bisshopegate, London, acquired from Peter de Hakeneye, and rents of 8s. out of a tenement in Redecrossestrete without Crepelgate, London, held by William Pokok, and 17s. out of a tenement by le Brokenwarfe, London, held by Henry de Cusford, which are held in chief as appears by inquisition taken by Henry Darcy, mayor of London and escheator there.

Margery late the wife of William le Blount, staying in England, has letters nominating Henry de Lutegarshale as her attorney in Ireland for two years. Michael de Wath received the attorney.

Protection and safe conduct, until Whitsunday, for John de Holford, master, and the mariners of a ship called la Bonai of Bristol, which Roger Turtle and Robert de Gyen, burgesses of that town, are sending with the king's fleet for the duchy [of Aquitaine] for wines and other merchandise, and for the ship.

By C.