Membrane 35—cont.

1338.

Whereas the abbot and convent of Seleby and some of their predecessors for the good of their house, have leased for life in the time of the late and present kings lands in Seleby, said to be held in chief, as follows, to William de Thornton of Seleby, a message, to Henry Yrwys and Margery his wife, a toft late of Alan Fraunceys, to Henry son of Hugh Ward of Seleby, a message, to Robert Btelof and Agnes his wife, a message, to Thomas de Celario of Seleby, a message, to Robert le Pulter and Millicent his wife, two messuages and 2 acres of land, to Thomas Stalworth of Seleby and Isabella his wife, a message, 5 acres of land and 2 acres of meadow, to John son of Robert le Shephird of Seleby and Joan his wife, a message and a shop, to Ralph le Chaundeler and Agnes his wife, a message, to Geoffrey Pertryk of Seleby and Christian his wife, 1 acre of land, to Peter le Fever of Seleby and Roger his son, a toft with a forge built thereon, to Alan de Ellerker of Seleby and Dionisia his wife, a message, to William le Ferour of Seleby and Elenas his wife, two messuages, to John de Ayreminne, sailor, of Seleby, 6 acres of land, to Adam le Foulur of Seleby and Margaret his wife, a message and a mill, to John de Hemnymburgh, 20 acres of land, to John Cophirst, a message, to Hugh de Pikkeworth and Margery his wife, a message, to William de Feriby and Agnes his wife, a message, to Walter son of Robert de Appilgarth of Seleby and Agnes his wife, a message and 1 acre of land, to Thomas de Scarburgh, chaplain, a message, to Roger le Breuster of Seleby and Margaret his wife, a message, to Gilbert le Boller and Margery his wife, a message, to Henry de Rouclif, a message, to John Burnet and Margery his wife, a message, to Isabella late the wife of John del Sartryn, 1 acre of land, to Gева late the wife of Richard Geve and John son of the said Richard, a message, to John Talbot, a shop, to Martin le Tailour of Seleby two shops, and to Robert le Pulter, John le Chapman, William Dodde the elder, William Dodde the younger and Thomas Pachet, five shops, and the abbot and convent have now made supplication to him that he would grant to the lessees an indemnity against disturbance on account of the demise especially in times of voidance; he has accordingly pardoned the trespasses herein and granted licence for the said persons to retain the tenements.

By p.s.

Pardon in consideration of a fine made by Ralph de Strubby, parson of the church of Tote, of the trespass of Ralph de Piperburgh, late parson of the said church, in acquiring in mortmain from Otto de Ferre, a message, two crofts, 6 acres of pasture and a moiety of a bovate of land in Tote, said to be held in chief, and entering therein without the licence of Edward I., Edward II. or the present king; and licence for him to retain the same.

By p.s. and by fine of 1 mark. Lincoln.

Grant to William Lengleys, king's yeoman, of the lands in Kirklevyington, co. Cumberland, which escheated to Edward II. by the forfeiture of Walter de Cory, a rebel, and of the lands in Tybbye and Runerthwait, co. Westmoreland, which came into the present king's hands by the death of Adam de Redeman, tenant of these for life by his grant, to hold in fee by the services due before the lands fell into the hands of the said king.

By p.s.

Licence for Margery le Blount to grant for life to John le Blount the castle of Webbele, co. Hereford, and the manor of Balderleye, co. Stafford, held in chief.

By p.s.