MEMBRANE 24.

- March 1. At the request of queen Philippa, the king lately granted to Agnes, Westminster. wife of John Mautravers the younger, the lands assigned to her in dower after the death of John de Argentein, sometime her husband, and those whereof she was enfeoffed jointly with John de Nerford, late her husband, which had been taken into his hands with other lands of the said John Mautravers forfeited by his rebellion, to hold with knight's fees and advowsons of churches for the support of herself and her children until he should order otherwise for her estate; and by letters patent of 17 November in the fifth year of his reign he granted in enlargement of the foregoing grant that she should hold the lands &c. for life. The said Agnes is now distrained by summons of the Exchequer to come to an account there for certain issues of the lands from the time when they were taken into the king's hands, and the king for her relief has granted to her all issues of the said lands from the time of the forfeiture, that she be not compelled to account for these at the Exchequer. By p.s.
