Among the fees of the earl of Chester—

- Patyngham, 1 fee.
- Drayton, 1 fee of the old feoffment, whereof Ralph Basset pays 4 marks.
- Elleford, 1 fee of the old feoffment, whereof Wakelin de Arden pays 2 marks.

In the hundred of Seysdon—

- Nicholas de Sumery is in the custody of the earl of Chester, his land in the hundred is worth 15s.
- Under the title of Testa de Nevill, the earl of Chester holds 7 knight's fees.

In the hundred of Pirhull—

- The prior and convent of Trenham hold the priory of Trenham, and the church of that town appropriated, and say they entered in the time of king Rufus by Hugh, ancient earl of Chester, in frank almoin.

In the Book of Fees of the Exchequer in the counties of Nottingham, Derby, under the title 'Honor of Chester':—

- Of the honor of Chester are held 5½ fees and a sixth part of a fee.
- Of Robert Tuschet, 5 marks for a fee and two parts of a knight's fee in Marketon with the soke.
- Of Roger de Monte Alto, 8l. for 4 knights' fees in Waleton Meysham.
- The earl of Chester holds whatever he holds in Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire in chief.

- Brocton was the land of Alfrede de Suleny, a Norman, and was taken into the king's hands but the king surrendered it to the earl of Chester because that knight held of him, and the earl's mother holds it in dower, and it is 1 knight's fee.

In the Book of Fees of the Exchequer in the county of Northampton.

Among the fees of Hugh de Albinaco, earl of Arundel, of the honor of Chester:

- Gilbert de Preston holds ½ fee in Preston.
- Philip Basset holds 3 fee in Middelton.
- William de Fortibus holds ½ fee in Rodeston.
- Geoffrey de Lucy holds 1 fee in Slapton.
- William Lungepeye and his parceners hold 1 fee in Byfeud.
- Richard de la Huse holds 1 fee in Jelvertoft.
- Maurice de Botindon holds ½ fee in Botindon.

In the Book of Fees of the Exchequer in the county of Leicester, of the fees of the earldom of Chester of the honor of Huntingdon:

- Of two fees held by John de Sproxton in Sproxton, Sexebey, and Torpe, 4 marks.
- Of two fees held by William de Folvill in Hesseby and Neubold, 4 marks.
- Of 1½ fee held by William Burdet in Louseby and in Bersonby, in Sixtenby, in Brokesby, and in Aleby, 3 marks.
- Of 1 fee held by Robert de Grendon and Sibyl de Chauz in Houtheby, 2 marks.
- Of 1 fee held by the free men of Cosseby in that town, 1 mark.
- Of ½ fee held by Isabella de Estleya in Wileweby.
- Of 1 fee held by Robert de Beuvisevera and the prior of St. Andrew's, Northampton in Standeford, 2 marks.
- Of 1 fee held by John de Bakepus in Hathelokeston, 2 marks.
- Of 1 fee [held] by Alan Basset in Foxton, Wymundeham, and Torpe, 2 marks.