Jordan de Assefordby holds a fourth part of a fee in Asfordby.
Simon de Swaby holds half a fee in Farlestorpe and Turleby.
Mabel de Loveny [holds] the town of Thoresby but it is not known for how much or by what service.
Walter de Grendale holds three parts of a fourth part of a fee in Uleby and elsewhere.
Thomas de Tatinton and his parencers hold half a fee in Tatinton and elsewhere.
William de Belesby holds a fee in Horsinton and Stykesford of the old feoffment.
Robert de Nevill holds a fourth part of a fee in Burred of the old feoffment.
Gervase de Thorpe holds a knight's fee in Scamelesby of the old feoffment.
Geoffrey de Beningwrth holds Salmundebey Strethoffeld with four bovates of land in Hameringliam for two fees less one quarter.
John de Langeton holds half a fee in Langeton and elsewhere.
Simon de Danby holds a fourth part of a fee in Sauesthorpe, Langetton, and elsewhere.
Walter de Grendale holds a twelfth part in Langeton.
Geoffrey de Beningwrth holds 1 fee in Little Grymesby.
John Wabode holds 1 fee in Ireby of the old feoffment.
Alan de Benigton holds an eighth part of a fee in Alesby.
William de Otteby holds 1 fee in Otteby.
Alan de Braytoft holds 3 fees in Claxeby and Normaneby.
Ralph de Normaneby holds half a fee in the same.
John de Eaterby holds 1 fee in Houton.
Robert Bretun and John de Liusinton hold a fourth part of a fee in Thorewey.
Alan de Bollesby holds three parts of a fee in Thurgramby.

In the Book of Fees of the Exchequer in the county of Lincoln.

In the wapentake of Jerdeburgh :
Robert de Cestre and Anne de Rydeford hold in Berneteby two knight's fees of the constable of Chester; and he of the king in chief of the conquest.
John de Funteney holds there half a knight's fee of Thomas Greyley, and he of the constable of Chester, and he of the king as above.
Robert de Burton holds there a fourth part of a knight's fee of Thomas Greyley as above.
Robert de Cestre holds there a tenth part of a knight's fee of the constable as above.
Robert son of Benedict holds there a twentieth part of a knight's fee of Hugh de Nevill and he of the constable as above.
Thomas de Arches holds in Sumerety a twentieth part of knight's fee of John de Funteney and he of the constable as above.
Gilbert de Arches holds in Bekeby half a knight's fee of Thomas Greyley and he of the constable as above.
William son of Simon holds in Broclousby half a knight's fee of the earl of Chester and he of the king in chief.
Ralph de Gousul holds in Kilingholm a third part of a knight's fee of the countess of Chester, and she of the earl Marshal, and he of the king in chief of the honor of Bolingbroc.

In the Book of Fees of the Exchequer in the county of Lincoln :
In the wapentake of Walscroft, Ralph son of Warin holds in Neuton half a knight's fee of Jolland de Nevill, and he of the constable of Chester, and he of the king of the conquest.