1338.

Membrane 27—cont.

To them, his stud of horses throughout the realm, and the armour, jewels, money and everything else pertaining to the said chamber, who discharges his office with fidelity and diligence, and does not by reason of his office intermeddle in anything for which he could be called on to render account, that he, his heirs and executors, shall not at any time be compelled to render account by reason of his said office. By K. and by p.s.

June 30. Ipswich.

Pardon, with the assent of the prelates, earls, barons and magnates, and others of the council, attending the king, to John de Molyns, knight, for all homicides, robberies, felonies, larcenies, arsons, conspiracies, confederacies, alliances, trespasses, and excesses within the realm, whether in the time of Edward II. or of the present king, as well as for receiving persons banished from the realm, felons and enemies of the king, and for adhesion to them, and of any consequent outlawries. Pardon also of all his trespasses in breaking parks of either of the said kings or of any other, hunting in these and in forests and chases, and trespasses of vert and venison, and of any consequent outlawries. By K. and by p.s.

June 20. Ipswich.

Protection and safe conduct, until Michaelmas, for William Malechot of Brittany, a ship of England or Brittany, the master and mariners of such ship and the fellows and servants of the said William, going from Brittany to the islands of Gereseye and Gernereye to further the king's business. By K.

June 24. Ipswich.

Protection for one year for John Coupegorge and Luke de Chevaigny, parson of the church of Swafham Market, clerks and attorneys of John, duke of Brittany and earl of Richmond, and William Vysot, yeoman of John Coupegorge, who are by birth of the duchy of Brittany as is said; granted that they be not disturbed on account of the dissensions between the king and those of France. By K.

June 18. Ipswich.

Pardon, at the request of Maurice de Berkele, to William de Grymstede and Alice his wife, Richard Mangtorn of Budesdene and Alice daughter of Roger le Gous of Westbury, for acquiring for their lives from Reginald de Pavely a messuage, 30 acres of land and an acre of meadow, in Westbury, said to be held in chief, and entering therein without licence; and licence for them to retain these. By p.s.

June 22. Ipswich.

Whereas Thomas, earl of Norfolk, marshal of England, has surrendered to the king and his heirs the castle and manor of Strogoill and the town of Cheppestowe, with the hamlets, knight's fees, advowsons of churches and other things pertaining to the castle, manor and town, the king, in consideration of such surrender, has re-granted the same to the said earl, Mary his wife, and the heirs of the earl's body. By p.s.

June 18. Ipswich.

Robert Peor, clerk, staying in Ireland, has letters nominating William Peor and Peter de Hunton as his attorneys in England for two years.

Robert de Hamynyngburgh received the attorneys by writ.

June 20. Ipswich.

Protection and safe conduct, until Michaelmas, for certain messengers whom John, archbishop of Canterbury, and Richard, bishop of Durham, the king's envoys to France, will send to and from France and England to forward the king's business and their own. By K.

June 20. Walton.

Mandate to the chancellor or the keepers of the Great Seal for the time being to present John Coupegorge, king's clerk, to the first void benefice in the king's gift, with or without cure, of not greater value than 40L a year, which he will accept, as soon as two others, to whom the king has shown the like grace, have been presented. By p.s.