1338.

Membrane 17—cont.

July 7.
Walton.

Grant to the citizens of London, who, although by the king's charter they are not to be distrained to go or send in war without their city, have raised in their city 40 armed men and 60 archers to serve with the king in parts beyond the seas, that this shall not prejudice their liberty as a precedent.

By p.s.

June 6 (sic).
Walton.

Inspecimus and confirmation of letters patent of the king's son, Edward, duke of Cornwall and earl of Chester, granting, at the king's request, to John de Molyns the custody of the lands late of Simon de Sancto Licio, who held of him in chief, to hold with knight's fees, advowsons and reversions during minority of the heir, with the marriage of the heir; dated under the earl's privy seal at Ipswich, 18 June, 12 Edward III.

By p.s.

June 28.
Walton.

Licence for the alienation in mortmain by John Caproun to the guardian and Friars Minors of Colecestre for the enlargement of their dwelling-place of a plot of land held of the abbot and convent of the church of St. John, Colecestre, by the service of 3s. yearly; and for the release to them by the abbot and convent of the said rent.

By p.s.

July 12.
Walton.

Grant to John de Feriby, king's clerk, of 100£ a year for life out of the rent of 10£ paid at the Exchequer by the abbot and convent of Welbek for the mills of the town of Retford.

By p.s.

July 4.
Walton.

Pardon to Ranulph de Dacre for acquiring in fee from Gilbert de Hatcio 60 acres of waste in the forest of Ingelwode, in a place called 'Warnhill,' held in chief by an rentation to be rendered at the Exchequer, and entering therein without licence; and licence for him to retain these.

By fine of 40£. Cumberland.

June 26.
Walton.

Grant, at the request of the king's kinsman, William de Bohun, earl of Northampton, to Hugh de Morichey and the heir male of his body of the farm of 10£, which he is bound to render at the Exchequer by the hands of the sheriff of Cumberland for three parts of the town of Culgayth which escheated to Edward II. by the forfeiture of Andrew de Harcla and were granted to him in fee by the said king.

By p.s.

July 10.
Walton.

Acquittance to Philip de Thame, prior of the Hospital of St. John of Jerusalem in England, for 100£ paid by William de Langeford, his clerk, to Robert de Wodehous, king's clerk, the treasurer, for a fine made in the Chancery to have again part of the manor of the New Temple, London, lately in the king's hands.

By bill of the treasurer.

July 11.
Walton.

Presentation of Walter de Weston to the church of Brigham in the jurisdiction of Richemund, directed to Robert de Wodehous, archdeacon of Richemund.

By p.s.

July 8.
Walton.

Grant to John Lestraunge, in enlargement of the late grant to him of the office of bailiff-errant in the counties of Norfolk and Suffolk for life, that in place of the rod which he bears in the office he shall for the future bear a mace (clavam).

By p.s.

July 7.
Walton.

Pardon, at the request of the king's kinswoman, the wife of John de Moubray, to Hugh de Rodemerthwyt for all homicides, felonies, robberies...