Membrane 13—cont.

1338.

the said lands have now been taken into the king's hands by William Trussel, escheator on this side Trent, because William de Hedresete is dead, whereby William de Kesteven cannot have the extent; the king has granted such lands to the latter to hold to him, his heirs and executors until the arrears due have been levied from them.

Membrane 14.

July 8.

Acquittance to the men of the town of Hertford for 113s. 7½d., received by the hands of Robert de Wodehous, king's clerk, the treasurer, for the second year of the three-yearly tenth due by them to the king, which at his request they have paid in advance. By bill of the treasurer.

The like to the men of the town of Berkyng for 22l. 15s., the fifteenth due by them. By bill of the treasurer.

The like to the men of the town of Newport in Essex for 6l. 15s. 6½d., the fifteenth due by them. By bill of the treasurer.

The like to the men of the town of Watford for 6l. 15s. 3½d., the fifteenth due by them. By bill of the treasurer.

The like to the men of the town of Dunstable for 14l. 2s. 2d., the fifteenth due by them. By bill of the treasurer.

The like to the men of Abyndon, co. Berks, for 13l., the fifteenth due by them. By bill of the treasurer.

The like to the men of Estderham for 13l. 2s. 9d., the fifteenth due by them. By bill of the treasurer.

The like to the mayor and burgesses of the town of Thedford for 32l. the tenth due by them. By bill of the treasurer.

The like to the men of the town of Tamworth, co. Stafford, for 60s. the tenth due by them. By bill of the treasurer.

The like to the men of the town of Tamworth, co. Warwick, for 6l., the tenth due by them.

Membrane 15.

Grant to Ghaleassus de Uzzano and the other merchants of the society of the Alberti, in satisfaction of 2,000 marks lent by them to the king, of 1,000 marks from the three-yearly tenth granted by the clergy in the diocese of Canterbury, and the like in the diocese of Winchester, to wit, of the first term of the second year of the grant. By K. and by p.s.

Mandate in pursuance to the collectors of the tenth in the diocese of Canterbury.

The like to the collectors in the diocese of Winchester.

Acknowledgment of the king's indebtedness to James and Peter Bosdrak, David Jakes and Castellus Castilon, merchants of the society of the Busdrak of Lucca, in 200l. lent by the hands of William de Kildesby, king's clerk; with promise of repayment within one year of Midsummer. By p.s.

Be it remembered that these letters are cancelled because the said David and Castellus for themselves and their fellows paid the 200l. to Matthew Canaceon for the like sum lent by him to the said merchants, whereof he has letters obligatory of the king as appears by the Patent Roll, 14 Edward III. Part 3.