1338.

July 9.

Walton.

Pardon, at the request of Nicholas de la Beche, to Richard de Clovill for all trespasses of vert and venison in parks in the king’s hands by reason of voidance of sees or any other parks, confederacies, conspiracies or other trespasses against the peace of Edward II. or of the king, and of any consequent outlawries.

By p.s.

June 28.

Walton.

Whereas queen Isabella, at the request of the king and the prelates, earls, barons and other magnates of the realm, surrendered to him her dower lands of the value of 4,500l. with other lands which she held by grant for life of the present king, and he afterwards assigned to her for life lands of the value of 3,000l. yearly, and whereas on 11 August last, wishing to supply what was wanting of the said 1,500l. granted by his father in dower, notwithstanding such surrender, he granted to the said queen 600l. out of the customs in the ports of London, Boston and Kyngeston upon Hull, respectively for her life or until she should receive 1,500l. yearly of land and rent, it was and is his intention that she should receive the said 1500l. from the subsidy lately granted to him by merchants as well as from the customs of wools, hides and wool-fells in those ports, and the collectors in each port are to pay to her out of such subsidy while it continues and the customs the said 500l. with any arrears from 11 August which may be due. If on account of war or prior or future assignments of the customs and subsidy she is unable to obtain the 1,500l. or any part thereof, she shall have the whole or part at the Exchequer, until she receive them in land and rent.

By p.s., and by K. on the information of William de Monte Acut, earl of Salisbury.

July 8.

Walton.

Protection and safe conduct until All Saints Day for men and servants of the king’s merchant, John de Denton of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, going to parts beyond the seas with 80 sacks of wool which the king lately granted licence for him to send from the said port without payment of any custom or subsidy, to be sold for his profit in those parts.

By p.s.

July 11.

Walton.

Grant to John de Westmancote, king’s clerk, that for his life his houses in Suthwerk, co. Surrey, shall be quit of livery of stewards, marshals and other ministers of the king or others.

By p.s.

July 6.

Walton.

Philip de Preston, going beyond the seas, has letters nominating John Mariot and Robert Buty of Walyngeford as his attorneys in England for one year.

By p.s. Thomas de Sibthorpe received the attorneys.

John son of William atte Vikars of Retford, going beyond the seas, has letters nominating Thomas son of John Prat of Retford and Gerard Norays of Eton as his attorneys in England for one year.

By p.s. The said Thomas received the attorneys.

July 11.

Walton.

Appointment of the king’s first-born son, Edward, duke of Cornwall and earl of Chester, as keeper of the realm for such time as the king shall stay in parts beyond the seas.

Federe.

July 13.

Walton.

Appointment, on the advice of the council, of William de Clyton, earl of Huntingdon, to attend the duke as one of his council.

By K.

The like of the following:—

Richard, earl of Arundel.

Ralph de Nevyll.

July 8.

Walton.

Protection with clause voluntas until Christmas, for Maurice de Berkeley going beyond the seas on the king’s service.

By bill of p.s.

John son of John Mautravers the younger, going beyond the seas on the king’s service with Henry de Ferraris, has letters nominating Nicholas Pyke and John Wake as his attorneys in England until Christmas.