1338. Dec. 18. Pardon, at the request of those of the council in parts beyond the seas, to William de Mordon of London, merchant, of the fine of 200L made by him for having put 3 sacks and 20 stone of wool in casks on board a ship of Flanders, laden in the port of London, to defraud the king of the custom and subsidy due thereon, whereof he was convicted in the port of Sandwich whither the ship was driven by a storm.

Mandate to the merchants of the society of the Bardi to cause restitution to be made to him in England of the wool, which is said to have been delivered to them by Stephen le Blount, king's clerk, who seized it for the king.

1339. Jan. 4. Presentation of John de Charnelles to the church of Tredyngton, in the diocese of Worcester, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the see.

By letter of the Keeper.

1339. Jan. 12. Presentation of Roger de Seryngton to the church of Stifford, in the diocese of London.

Membrane 4—cont.

Membrane 3.

Pardon, at the request of those of the council in parts beyond the seas, to William de Mordon of London, merchant, of the fine of 200L made by him for having put 3 sacks and 20 stone of wool in casks on board a ship of Flanders, laden in the port of London, to defraud the king of the custom and subsidy due thereon, whereof he was convicted in the port of Sandwich whither the ship was driven by a storm.

Mandate to the merchants of the society of the Bardi to cause restitution to be made to him in England of the wool, which is said to have been delivered to them by Stephen le Blount, king's clerk, who seized it for the king.

1339. Jan. 4. Presentation of John de Charnelles to the church of Tredyngton, in the diocese of Worcester, in the king's gift by reason of the voidance of the see.

By letter of the Keeper.

Writ de intendendo to Nicholas de la Beche in favour of the king's son, Edward, duke of Cornwall, with respect to the homages, fealties and other services due for lands which he holds of the castle of Walyngford and the honors of Walyngford and St. Valery, in Oxford and other counties, the king having by charter granted the said castle and honors, inter alia, to the duke and his heirs, first born sons of the kings of England.

The like to the tenants of the manor of Herewell, co. Berks, in favour of Nicholas de la Beche as tenant in fee of the manor by virtue of a charter whereby the king granted him the reversion of the manor then held by Hugh Daudele and Margaret his wife, by grant of Edward II. for the life of the latter, and of a grant to him of the manor by the said Hugh and Margaret, already accepted by letters patent of the king.

Sept. 24. Licence for the prior and convent of Westacre to appropriate the church of Bodeneye in the diocese of Norwich, of their own advowson. By p.s.

Presentation of Thomas de Perdyshou to the church of Henxhill in the diocese of Canterbury, in the king's hands by reason of his custody of the lands and heir of David de Strabolgi, earl of Atholl, tenant in chief.

Jan. 16. Signification to J. archbishop of Canterbury, or his vicar general if he be in distant parts, of the royal assent to the election in the cathedral church of Worcester of Wolstan, prior of the house, to be bishop.

By letter of the Keeper.

Presentation of Stephen de Grenneburgh to the vicarage of the church of Peckham, in the diocese of Worcester, in the king's gift by reason of the temporalties of the abbey of Lire being in his hands on account of the war with France.

Jan. 16. Mandate to the prior and convent of Peterborough for restitution of the temporalties of the abbey to Henry de Morcote, one of the monks, who has been appointed to be abbot by Master Simon de Islep, canon of Lincoln, vicar general of H. bishop of Lincoln, now in distant parts, by right devolving upon the bishop through the quashing for certain causes by the bishop's authority of the election of the same Henry previously held in the conventual church, and has done fealty to the king.

By letter of the Keeper.