1938.

Membrane 8.

July 20. Protection with clause volumus, until Christmas, for John de Waltham staying beyond the seas with the king. By K.

July 20. He also has letters nominating William de Carleton and Bartholomew Palfreyman his attorneys as above. By K.

Aug. 16. Grant to the burgomasters, schoffen and commonalty of Ghent that the alnager of the realm shall not intermeddle with cloths made in their town and sealed with the seal used there for the purpose. [Federa.] By K.

Aug. 11. By letters patent the king lately granted for life to Richard de Ekeneye and Katharine his wife 20L yearly from the manor of Ludegareshale, co. Southampton, and they have now made supplication to him to define at what term they are to have the same as this does not appear in the letters patent; he has granted, therefore, that they shall have the said 20L at Michaelmas and Easter. By K.

Aug. 11. Whereas Hildebrand Suderman, Henry de Braken, Henry Suderman and Gerwin Sinthous have paid the king in hand 1,200L for custom and subsidy on 400 sacks of wool they are to bring to Brabant from the realm, and his merchants, Gerard Bonenseigne and Dinus Forsetti, of the society of the Bardi, and John Baroncel and Thomas de Peruche, of the society of the Peruzzi, at his request have given bond for repayment of the sum in case they should be prevented by the king or his ministers from taking the wool without the realm without paying custom and subsidy according to their said licence; he promises his said merchants to save them harmless herein. By K.

Aug. 20. Appointment of Master Robert de Chikewell, king's clerk, to hasten the purveyance of the wool granted to the king by Parliament and to ask Master John Waweyn, William de Kyngeston and Thomas de Baddeby, appointed to supervise the taking of the same, as well as the collectors, to use all possible diligence in the matter. [Federa.] By K.

Sept. 6. Testimonial to the services of Nicholas Blank de Flisco, master of a galley lately sent to the king in England, and release of him from the covenants which he made in the city of Marseilles, in Provence, with Nicolinus de Flisco, called Cardinal, of Genoa, the king's proctor. [Federa.] By K.

Sept. 24. Full power to Nicolinus de Flisco, called Cardinal, of Genoa, and Jouinus his nephew to hire in the king's name as many armed galleys as shall be expedient, to engage mariners and sailors for his service, to detach them from the service of his enemies, and to agree on their wages, stipends, and remunerations.

Sept. 18. Renewal to the citizens of Cologne of the privileges granted by the king's predecessors. [Federa.] By K.

Membrane 7.

July 22. Revocation of the power committed by divers letters patent to J. archbishop of Canterbury, R. bishop of Durham and others to treat of peace between the king and Philip de Valesio, passing for king of France. [Federa.] By K.

Sept. 20. Grant for life to William de Monte Acuto, earl of Salisbury, of the office of the marshal of England, now in the king’s hands by the death of his uncle Thomas, earl of Norfolk. [Federa.] By K.

Oct. 10. Exemption for life of William de Bacchesmere of Manwode from being put on assizes, juries or recognisances, and from appointment as mayor, sheriff, coroner or other bailiff or minister of the king, against his will. By K.
