1339.

March 1. Commission to Richard, bishop of Durham, John bishop of Carlisle, Ralph de Nevill, Anthony de Lucy, Richard de Wyloughby, Richard de Alderbury, William de Twenge, John de Derewentwyre, John Moryn and John de Lancastre of Holgill to define by perambulation the metes and bounds between the counties of York and Westmoreland, respecting which there are great disputes as the king has learned in the late parliament from the men of both counties. By the Keeper & C.

Feb. 3. Commission to the abbot of St. Edmunds, John de Shardelowe, John de Loudham, Thomas Latymer, Hugh de Saxam and Ralph de Bockynge, in the county of Suffolk, to see that the men of the county are arrayed pursuant to the statute of Winchester, for defence of the realm against the French and other enemies from foreign parts, and that the watches are kept along the coast; also to see that the peace is kept there pursuant to that statute and the statute of Northampton, to depute others in their place for the premises as often as shall be necessary, and to arrest and imprison all persons forming unlawful assemblies or bringing armed force. For the greater security of the realm they and the array are to be attendant upon Humphrey de Bohun, earl of Hereford and Essex, John de Veer, earl of Oxford, and Roger de Grey, who have been appointed by letters patent to supervise the keeping of the peace and array of the men in this and other counties. The said John, John, Thomas, Hugh and Ralph are also to be justices to make inquisitions touching felonies and trespasses and to hear and determine these. By pet. of C.

March 27. Commission to John Dauney, Reginald de Botreux and William de Berkhamstead. Campo Arnulphi to array all the men between the towns and places of Saltessh and Fowey, co. Cornwall; as the king has learned for certain that the French and their adherents have assembled a large fleet of galleys and ships to invade the realm. By the Keeper & C.

Commission to William de Bodrigau, John Darundell and Richard de Cerseaux to array those between the towns and places of Fowy, Mossbole and St. Burian in the same county. By the Keeper & C.

April 1. Association of John Lestrange of Blakemere with John de Leyburn, Berkhamstead. Roger Corbet of Caus, Robert de Harley and Adam de Swyneshed, lately appointed in the county of Salop to keep the peace pursuant to the statutes of Winchester and Northampton, under Richard, earl of Arundel, and Thomas de Berkele, whom the king by letters patent had already appointed to supervise the keeping of the peace and the said statutes in that and other counties. By C.

And afterwards, on 21 April, because John son of John Dabernon, appointed with Robert de Salyngrave, Roger Saleman and John de Hayton, in the like commission in the county of Surrey, died, the king appointed John de Beres in his place.

And afterwards, on 8 May, Robert de Pavely, knight, is associated with William la Zousche of Haringworthe, John Dengayne, Laurence de Preston, Warin Latymer and John de Hegham, in the commission in the county of Northampton.

And afterwards, on 18 May, Richard de Casterton is associated with Saer de Rocheford, Richard de Ros of Tyd, Thomas de Multon of.